

~ Obituary ~

The Legacy of Mr. Ted Williams

On Tuesday, August 25, 2020, Ted Williams was called to rest at UNC Hospital in Chapel Hill, North Carolina.

Ted was born Tuesday, August 12, 1947. He was the second eldest son of the late Marylene Stanley and Phillip Lewis Williams.

He worked as a small motor builder at the Penn Ventilator Corporation in Tabor City, North Carolina. After retirement, Ted spent most of his time being a single parent and enjoyed fishing and caught some of the biggest game in North and South Carolina.

Ted was a great father, brother, cousin, and friend.

He leaves to cherish his legacy, his children, Teddy Mack of Durham, North Carolina, Teddy Vaughn Jr., of Wilmington, North Carolina, Deidra Terrell of Tabor City, North Carolina, Kayla Bellamy of Loris, South Carolina, Devon Kemp of Pembroke, North Carolina and Destiny Kemp of Loris, South Carolina; one special daughter Catherine Stephens, whom he raised as his own, one special son Joshua Vereen whom he loved; one sister, Mary Lois Brown; one special friend and cousin Dexter Stanley; and a host of grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

~ Order of Service ~

Presiding Sister Justina

PrayerPastor Daisy Brooks

Scripture Reading
Old Testament..... Stephine Gore
New Testament..... Stephine Gore

Selection.....Brandon Smith

Acknowledgements

Remarks

Eulogy.....Pastor Daisy Vereen Brooks

Interment
Stephens -Wright Cemetery
Peacock Road
Tabor City, North Carolina