

*If I could but see, again your face,
Oh how much my heart would race,
And nothing could ever efface,
The mem'ry of our last embrace.*

*If I could climb to Heaven's gate
And just look in to watch awhile,
Then I know I could joyfully wait,
If I could see your happy smile.*

*If I could hear the song you sing
And your laughter bless my ears,
Then grief would lose its sting
And a smile would dry my tears.*

*But faith would lose its esteem,
And Heaven'd lose its stealth,
So we must be denied this dream,
If Heaven is to keep its wealth.*

A Celebration of Life for Lawrence Empie Floyd "Doc"

*For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand.
I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:
is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.*

II Timothy 4:6-8
