~ Obituary ~

II Timothy 4:7-8

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

Johnnie Mack Lewis was born on November 6, 1948 in Clarkton North Carolina, to the late Margaret Lucille and James Lewis. He was a resident of Bridgeport, Connecticut for 51 years and a former member of Fellowship Temple Church of Bridgeport.

He was employed as a truck driver for Roof-Vac Inc, for many years until his retirement. Johnnie was a man of few words but also kind and gentle. A man of faith with a heart of gold, willing to lend a hand to anyone in need. He loved his children more than life itself. Johnnie enjoyed spending time with family members, especially his grandchildren, watching football and listening to gospel music.

He leaves to cherish his loving memory, two daughters, Margaret Lewis (James) of Bridgeport, Connecticut, and April Lewis Gordon (Damion) of Charlotte, North Carolina; one son, Johnny M. Lewis Jr. (Channel) of Ansonia, Connecticut; three grandchildren, James Butler Jr., Janea Butler and Damion Gordon Jr.; eight sisters, Peggy Gause of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Lubertha Drayton (Horace), Gayle McAllister (Bobby), Shirley Smith, Nancy Rodgers (Nicky) Laura Lee (Norris), Sakeeta Washington (William), Melissa Spivey-Lacewell; two brothers, Michael Spivey and Lee Lewis; and a host of cousins, uncles, aunts, nieces, and nephews.

~ Daddy ~

*Today our heart is heavy
With some sorrow, with some grief
But as days turn into months
I know we will find sweet relief
Just knowing that you loved us
And that you're not far away
But you are with us in spirit
Every hour of the day.*

We Love You Daddy
