

You Never Said Goodbye

Author Unknown

You never said I'm leaving,
You never said goodbye.
You were gone before we knew it,
And only God knew why.

A million times we needed you,
A million times we cried.
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.

In life we loved you dearly,
In death we love you still.
In our heart you hold a place,
That no one could ever fill.

It broke our hear to loose you,
But you didn't go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God took you home.

Obituary

Joseph accepted Christ as his personal Lord and Savior at an early age. He had faith and trusted in God to direct all of his paths.

He graduated from Eastern High School in Mebane, North Carolina, in 2003. Immediately after graduation, he was employed by Cracker Barrel restaurant. He worked for them for 8 years. During the time that he was employed with them, he decided to attend Gilford Technical College for Culinary.

After attending College, he accepted a position as a Manager at Junction 70 Restaurant, where he worked until his health would not permit him to work any longer.

Joseph was a kind, gentle young man with an infectious smile, and loved by many.

His loving legacy will forever be in the heart of his beloved family, mother, Miss Faustina Patterson of Mebane, North Carolina; father, Mr. Ronald Fowler of St. Louis, Missouri; Grandmother, Mrs. Rochelle Patterson of Longwood, North Carolina; uncle, Floyd (Ciresa) Patterson of Elizabethtown, North Carolina; aunt, Adriencce Fowler of Greenville, South Carolina; four great uncles and great aunts; special friends, Thomas Hudson, Edward Chrisp, Lucinda, Tiffany Zarate, Scott Ballard; and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.
