

TRIBUTE A Letter From Heaven

When tomorrow starts without me,
and I'm not here to see,
if the sun should rise and find your eyes,
filled with tears for me.

I wish so much you wouldn't cry,
the way you did today,
while think of the many things
we didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me,
as much as I love you,
and each time you think of me,
I know you'll miss me too.

When tomorrow starts without me,
don't think we're far apart,
for every time you think of me,
I'm right there in your heart ❤️

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Please know that while we mourn the loss of our loved one, we also celebrate the life and memories that we hold so dear. Thank you for all the prayers, visits, flowers, cards and every act of kindness shown to us during our time of bereavement. May God bless each and every one of you.

OBITUARY

To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven; A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; . . . (Ecclesiastes 3: 1-2)

Terry Lee Faulkner was born April 27, 1953 in Bladen County to the late Louise and William Faulkner. Proceeded him also in death were two sisters, Redonia Gore and Shirley Black, three brothers, Quinton, Willis and George Faulkner.

He attended and graduated from Booker T. Washington High School in 1971. Terry accepted Christ at an early age and joined First Missionary Baptist Church in Abbottsburg, North Carolina where he was a faithful member and served well. After graduating from high school, he joined the United States Marines and served 26 years. After retiring, he had a desire to help young people and became a child technician for Columbus County.

One of his favorite songs was "Well Done" by Deitrick Hadden. Terry's hobbies were riding his bike, cooking that famous chicken soup, listening to music, texting on his cell phone, spreading his love and he loved to beautify the yard.

Terry's love and presence will be missed by one brother, Alfred Faulkner (Carolyn), Elizabethtown, NC; four sisters, Linda Brunson (Jesse) and Barbara Faulkner, Bladenboro, NC, Hazel Faulkner, East Arcadia, NC, Margret Faulkner, Englewood, NJ, Carolyn Jones (Jerome), Elizabethtown, NC; Aunts, Ernestine Faulkner, Mary Patton, Pamela Skeen (Oneil), Sonie (Charles Wright); Uncles, Dexter Faulkner (Annette), Eric Faulkner (Joy); a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews, great-great nephews, cousins and friends.
