~ Obituary ~

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. John 14:1-3

Patricia Ann Troy, daughter of Cicero and Cora Lee Troy was born May 10, 1952 in Chadbourn, North Carolina. She entered a glorious new being on May 7, 2021 at home in Loris, South Carolina.

She received her education at Central High School. She loved fishing, relaxing by the beach and going to church on Sunday. Most of all she loved being with her family. Her grand's meant so much to her but when it came to her great grand's you had trouble on your hands about her babies. She loved them dearly.

She worked at Carolina Linen for about 15 years. She married James Lee Rose. This union was blessed with four children.

She was preceded in death by her daughter, Patricia Rose and her son, Robert Rose. She leaves to cherish her memory, three children, Stephanie Rose of Loris, South Carolina, Jimmy Rose of Whiteville, North Carolina, Beverly (Sean) Anderson of Raeford, North Carolina; one brother, Ralph (Joyce) Troy Lexington, North Carolina; one sister, Grace Ugbekile of Laurinburg, North Carolina; seven grandchildren, six great grandchildren; and a host of uncles, aunts, cousins and many precious friends.
