

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard him call;
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way;*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much;
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch*

*Perhaps my time seems all too brief;
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.*

*"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course,
I have kept the faith" ~ II Timothy 4:7*

Vernice Faye Evans was born October 15, 1932 in Bladenboro, North Carolina to Alice Lewis Singletary and Rozier Singletary. She was one of eight siblings: Geneva Purdee (deceased), Elma A Staten (deceased), Joyce Singletary, Betty S. Lewis, Vertis A. Singletary, Gloria Raye Singletary, and Rozier Singletary, Jr. (deceased).

She graduated from Spaulding-Monroe High School of Bladenboro in 1950. While attending Spaulding-Monroe, she met Wilbert Evans. They got married and relocated to New York. While residing in New York, they had one child, Wilbert Larue "Rudy" Evans (deceased).

After moving back to Bladenboro, Mrs. Evans went back to school to further her education in cosmetology and business administration. She achieved and exceeded the expectations of both career fields. After completing college, she was hired at Central Funeral Home, where she worked for 30 plus years. She worked in an entry level administrative position, but very soon became the Funeral Director/Manager of the business.

Mrs. Evans was a faithful, devoted, inspiring church member of Round Branch Baptist Church. She had various roles in the church, including Finance Officer, choir member, Board of Trustees, and that was only to name a few. She visited the sick and the shut-in of the community as well as anyone she knew who was in a nursing home.

Her memory will always be etched in the hearts of her grandson Brian C Singletary (Crystal); great-granddaughter, Dasia; great great-grandchildren, Emori and Noah all of North Carolina; sisters, Joyce Singletary, Betty S. Lewis, Vertis A. Singletary, and Gloria R. Singletary all of North Carolina; sister-in-law, Margie LeSane; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
