Shabé's Story...

Shabé Deshin Bryant was born August 30, 2000 at Brunswick Community Hospital in Supply, North Carolina. He was the son of Wesley Ernest Bryant and the late Keisha Bland Frink. From the moment he was born, his inner joy seemed to shine. Everyone loved him instantaneously and as he became older, the more endearing people found him to be. Even when he was most visibly ill, Shabé never had a shortage of family or friends who wanted to spend time with him.

Shabé attended Union Elementary, Cedar Grove Middle and graduated from West Brunswick High School in 2018. After high school, Shabé enrolled in online classes at Brunswick Community College. He had a real love of computer technology, music and was keenly interested in the world around him. Shabé was an intelligent young man who loved to have meaningful discussions with anyone who would listen.

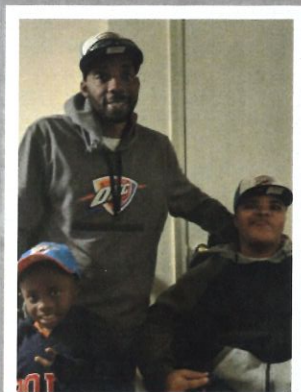

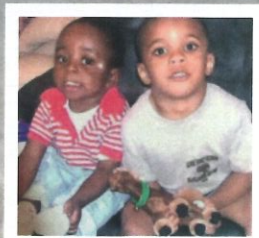

Shabé was an avid sports fan and especially enjoyed basketball. He was overjoyed when he traveled to Oklahoma to see his favorite team play. There, he met his favorite player, Russell Westbrook of the Oklahoma City Thunder.

At the young age of 20 years, Shabé lost his battle with Muscular Dystrophy. On Thursday, July 22, 2021, he slipped away peacefully surrounded by loving family members at UNC Hospital, Chapel Hill, North Carolina. Shabé had prepared for his departure. He confessed his love of Christ and was baptized by submersion, thus becoming a full fledged member of Cedar Grove Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend Dr. Freeman Gause.

Shabé had a deep love for his family and cherished each moment they spent together, playing practical jokes and enjoying family dinners, especially those prepared by his grandmother Peggy. He had an energy that even with one encounter, you would remember him for life. Although, we will miss him dearly, we know that he is rejoicing with the Lord, his beautiful mother and grandmother.

Shabé will forever live in the hearts of his father, Wesley Bryant; brothers, Timothy Frink, Jr. and Brycen Bryant; grandparents, William and Sandy Bland; uncle, Jimmy Bryant II (Danielle); aunts, Latasha Bland, Tracy Harrison and Erica Stevenson; great uncles and aunts, Ronnie Gore, Jeffrey Gore, Willie (Jeanette) Bryant, Jelta Bryant, Deacon Arthur Jack (Gloria) Bland, David (Theresa) Bland, Ray (Gertrude) Bland, Barbara Ann Bland, Thelma Bernard, Linnie Bland, Jeanette Bland, Raphael (Vesta) Bland, Shirley Hill, Oleater (Steve) Stanley, Wanda (Gerald) Marlowe, Tyra Gore, Arcildra (Barry) Jefferson and Elizabeth (Jimmy) Franklin; special cousins/friends, Marquez "Trey" Bland, Jaquez Gore, Bles Moody, Donté Clark and TyzJae Gore, a very special nurse and caregiver, Angie Harris; and host of other relatives and friends.

God saw the burden of life getting too heavy and the hills too high to climb, so he closed his weary eyes and whispered peace be thine. AMEN
