*"And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them."
Revelation 14:13*

Rena Mae (Gause) Price, affectionally called “Momma Price,” was born on June 12, 1939, in Loris, South Carolina, to the late Ezekiel Gause and Sarah Hemmingway Gause. She went home from her labor, winning souls to Christ to her reward in glory on Saturday, September 4, 2021, at Columbus County Regional Hospital, Whiteville, North Carolina.

She attended the public schools of Horry County and graduated from Faintly High School. She worked for many years at Radiator Specialty Company and retired after 22 years in Charlotte, North Carolina.

In January 1963, she was joined in Holy Matrimony in Tabor City, North Carolina, to her sweetheart John Walter Price, of Tabor City, North Carolina. A marriage that lasted 59 years. Four children were born to this union.

Rena Mae Price accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age, 12 years old. She attended Cannon's Temple Church Of God In Christ for many years, under the late Pastor E.C. Cannon (Pastor), serving on the Mother's Board. Mother Rena Mae Price served faithfully for over 29 years as church mother at the True Holiness Outreach Church, Inc, Tabor City, North Carolina, Bishop John Walter Price (Pastor). Mother Rena Mae Price was a kindhearted woman, mindful of others, and loved people.

She was always dedicated to her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, husband, family, and friends. She was an incredible wife, a loving mother, a precious grandmother, and always had an encouraging word for people. She always reminded us that tomorrow is not promised to you and make every day count.

She was preceded in death by her father, Mr. Ezekiel Gause, and mother, Mrs. Sarah Gause; sisters, Emma Mae (Gause) Graham, Coreen Gause, Irene Gause; brother, Samuel Gause; and oldest daughter Jennifer Arleen Hightower.
