

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know. John 14:1-4

OBITUARY

Pearline Gore was born in Little River, South Carolina on July 11, 1927, daughter of the late John Stanley Gore and Leana Gore. She departed this life on Christmas Eve, December 24, 2021, at Lower Cape Fear LifeCare Angel House in Whiteville, North Carolina.

Pearline will always be known to her Friendship Missionary Baptist Church family as the "Peppermint Lady." When Pearline was able to attend church, she ensured that all received a hand full of peppermints prior to the beginning of service. Pearline was a lifetime baseball fan, a big Brooklyn/Los Angeles Dodgers fan. She would always want to know if her boys were on TV, no conversations were allowed during the games.

A longtime resident of Whiteville, she was preceded in death by her husband of 60 years, Douglas Gore; daughter, Cleo Graham; grandson, Troy Oakley, and nine siblings.

Pearline was a lifetime devoted wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, aunt, and friend to everyone who crossed her path. Pearline knew no strangers, she only knew how to show compassion, joy, a strong religious faith, a good sense of humor, and love for all she encountered.

Pearline is survived by her daughter, Mildred Ann Gore; grandson, Richard Oakley; great-grandsons, Richard T. Oakley, III, Nicholas W. Oakley, and Trey D. Oakley; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and special friends.

Pearline always said God was so good to her. She was so lucky and blessed in her life; but let it be known, we were the lucky ones to have her bless us with her company.

Pearline, may you R.I.P.
