

CLARENCE MILTON EDWARD SYLVESTER

- C - is for his calmness and courageous mannerism.
- L - is for his love of the Lord and his knowledge of God's Word.
- A - is for our appreciation of all of his accomplishments and all the many achievements of his life -- both recognized and unrecognized.
- R - is for the reasons God saw fit to share such an angel with his family and friends; and for the reason He saw when it was time to call him home.
- E - is for his excellence and educational briefs and upbringing on his own that was the catalyst of his existence.
- N - is for his never tiring demeanor and the nutriment for his family from occupations that sustained him through his entire life.
- C - is for as long as I can recall, I have always had an admiration for the core of his being and his constant yearning to please others.
- E - is for the emptiness that we will feel in his absence.
- M - is for the many, many lives -- both young and old; good and bad -- that he touched and pleased with his masculinity presence.
- I - is for his integrity and initiatives and the impression he leaves for many years to come.
- L - is for his melodious sound and laughter and the many memories of him we will cherish forever.
- T - is for our treasure of things we shall forever think about during the span our lives.
- O - is for the many observations, citations, and other recognitions he earned and received throughout his lifetime.
- N - is for his new home up above. He always quoted, "absence from the body; present with the Lord".

E - is for his exhibition of courage in the many facets of his livelihood.
D - is for his devotion and forever dedication of his faith and belief.
W - is for his unique offerings of wisdom and knowledge to all he encountered.
A - is for his active participating in the Great Summit Meeting of all times.
R - is for the raging storms of his life and for our remembrance of many happy times with him.
D - is for the dedication and deep love he had for his wife Gloria. His last words were "I love you".

S - is for The simplicity of his character and the sound of his rapid speech.
Y - is for the yesterdays we shared and will value forever.
L - is for the love we shared and the longevity that God blessed him with.
V - is for his little dog Vessie, who loved and depended on him for her daily walks.
E - is for his endurance of many ailments for so long.
S - is for his sincerity and our significant forever memories of his life.
T - is for his not-so- tall statue and the tenderness of his subsistence that he projected to all mankind.
E - is for every ominous crack of his thunderous experiences.
R - is for his reward of 84 years, 9 months, and 13 days (2,675,548,800 seconds) that he was allowed to grace us with his presence.

