Obituary
Of
Louise Virginia Staples

Louise Virginia Staples was born on June 25, 1915 in Clark Fork, Missouri to the late Laura Shirley Nelson, and departed this life on July 13, 2019.

Louise went to school in Boonville, Missouri. In 1942, she and her husband, Robert O. Staples, Sr., moved to San Francisco, California. Louise was employed at Franklin Hospital and also worked part-time for Wells Fargo Bank.

In 1979, Louise retired and in 1981 moved to Sacramento with her husband where she resided until the good Lord called her home. Louise was preceded in death by her husband, her mother, stepfather and sister. She is survived by her son, Robert Staples, Jr.; granddaughter, Lisa Singleton; great-grandchildren, Cecil and Jasmin Singleton; great-great-grandchildren, Michael and Jean Singleton; also, her nephews, Walter Wright, Sr. (Tracy), and Reverend Robert Greene (Myrna); as well as her niece, Marian Larkin; a cousin, Toney Orr; her dear friend, Ann Jackson; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Trust in the LORD with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make your paths straight. Proverbs 3:5-6

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

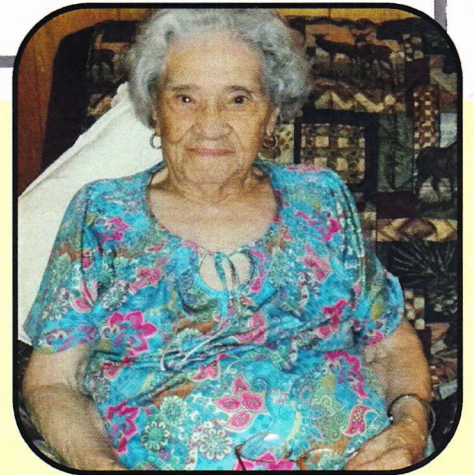

We are pleased to join your family and friends in wishing you a happy 100th birthday.

As you celebrate this extraordinary milestone, we hope you reflect on the many memories you have made over the past century. Your generation has shown the courage to persevere through depression and war, and the vision to broaden our liberties through changing times.

We are grateful for your contributions to the American story, and we wish you all the best for the coming year.

Sincerely,

 Michelle Obama

On behalf of the family, we wish to express their gratitude for your many kindnesses evidenced in thought, word and deed and for your attendance at the service
