Obituary

Gwendolyn Simpson was born September 20, 1950, in Herlong, CA, to her loving parents Jessie and James Williams.

Gwendolyn was raised in San Bernardino, CA where she meet her husband of 50 years Horace Simpson Sv.

She had five kids Jerome, Horace Jr. (Michael), Derrick, Temeka, and Shabondy. She then became a foster parent and adopted her grandchildren Horace III, Christopher, Nicole, Monique, and Mahila of whom, as well as all her grandchildren she truly loved very much.

Gwendolyn was passionate about family and friends, and she had a true personal relationship with Christ that was witnessed by many.

She opened her own business, a room and board/sober living home, that specialized in helping the homeless/mentally ill get off the street. Nunna was not only well respected, but she was one you could go to for sound advice, comfort, and support. She never would turn you away.

Gwendolyn is preceded in death by her mother Jessie and father James, sister Alice Marie Nelson"Rea", great-grandmother Willie Bell Maxey, Aunts Jessie Haley, Jewel Winhdham.

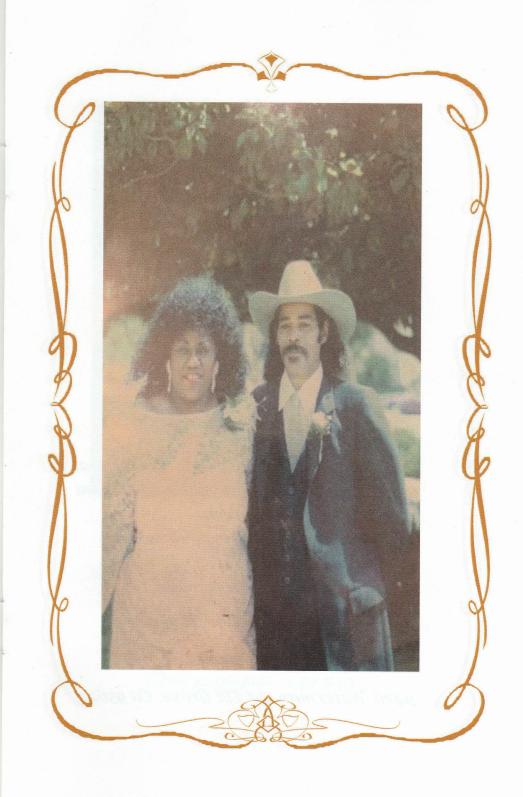

She leaves to cherish her memory a host of family and friends.

Acknowledgements

The family would like to say thank you at this time for all the love and support you have given.

Sincerely,

The Simpson Family

I will hold you close to my heart always and forever, I promise to be here for your children and grandchildren. I promise to cherish all our memories.

I promise to keep role modeling for that I know we will meet again, that is what will keep me going. I will be here for my brother IC when he need me. Until then I promise to be my sister's keeper proudly. I love you Nunna.

Love your sister Paulette
