Grandma

Grandma you showed me what love was, I could never do wrong in your eyes. Every time I think of you, I never seen pain from you, I always seen you smile through your toughest times. You really were the definition of "Make a way out of no way". I love you so much, tell Timothy I love him too because I know he is on your nerves now.

In Memory of
Timothy Franklin Jr.
"Prince"

One day I looked up
And realized you were gone,
And even though I felt alone
I knew I had to be strong.

Cause the goals we set to achieve
I was left to do the rest on my own
So, I just did my best and believed that
One day you'd be home.
And that day you went away

I can see it so clear
Cause even though you weren't here
You still felt so near.
And as those tears ran down my face
I could only ask, "Why?"

Then I said a prayer and saw you there
To hear my last cry.
And when I thought about that bond, we had
Nothing could break it

Then a smile came to my face
And I knew I could make it.
Cause when we met, we made a promise
That we never should part
And no matter how far you strayed away
You'd never leave my heart.
And we promised that the love we shared
Never would end

Cause once I've exhaled my last breath
(Now we are together again.)

Mom life for me without you will be impossible. I was not prepared to learn to live without you, this came so prematurely in my eyes. God knew it was time for you to go take care of Tim again, this time only in Heaven. My heart will forever yearn and ache for your Love, Presence and Touch. You are the creator of my life, Beautiful memories, Strength filled moments, and all a daughter could ask for. You raised strong children we will forever continue to follow the path you were creating for us all along. (Loved Forever Tootie)

A Mother's love can never be replaced, especially a love compared to the love I received from you... You were, are, and always will be more than a Mother. You were truly my best friend. You were my angel here on earth the most important role model needed to shape me into the woman I am today. You were my strength when I could no longer continue forward, my rock to my foundation, my consolation in sorrow and my hope in misery. Now I must face the fact that God needed you more than I did. This I know (Love Paula)

Hello mom can you hear me? Its Brandy

Dear God please carry me through this, I'm feeling very weak.
I hope you take my love with you as my tears fall on your cheek.
Momma, I'm very thankful for all the years we've had. I'm trying to remember you laughing and talking mess so I will not be sad with all this pain in my chest.
I awake each morning to start a new day but the pain of losing you never goes away.
I go about things I have to do and as the hours pass I think again of you.

I want to call you and just hear your voice. Then I remember that I have no choice for you are not there and how my heart cries.
Oh father, can you hear me? I'm sending a prayer your way, I talk to her in whispers.

And I hope she hears me pray, please send an angel to guide her towards your way.
I'll continue to tell her I love her and thank her for all the sacrifices she made and unconditional love, no matter what kind of behavior I displayed.

Mom, can you hear me?

I have so much more to say I will continue on with your legacy praying I can be as strong as you one day.
God... This is for our mother up above, tell her how we miss her and please give her all our love.
