Remembering Darron

Darron was born on March 18, 1965 to Dorothy Davis and Roy Garner in Memphis, TN.

He was educated in the Memphis school system, graduating from North Side High School.

Darron was a Christian, giving his life to Christ at an early age.

The family moved to Sacramento, CA in 1985, where he went to the California Job Corps, which propelled him into a career as a brick layer before going to work for the State of California.

It was in Sacramento where he met his soulmate Sherrytia, the mother of his only child.

Darron enjoyed reading drawing and painting for his family and friends.

At family and social gatherings, he was the life of the party.

Darron is survived by his sould mate Sherrytia Wright, Son; Darron Davis, Jr., Mother; Dorothy Davis, Father; Roy Garner Sisters; Toni Davis, Monica Johnson, Doris Davis, Kenya Davis, Chequita Davis, Niella Davis, Tequilla Davis, Ladasha Allen Tonisha Butler, Brothers; Melvin Davis, Spencer J. Davis.

He also leaves to cherish his memories Nieces; Crystal Johnson, Antionette Johnson, Shenquia Davis, Joniquia Horton, Nautica Davis, Chekashia Littlejohn, Nephews; Matthew Miller, Mathias Miller, Gerald Gardner, Calvin Littlejohn, Keyshawn Henderson, Demarion Davis, Charles Davis, Spencer Davis, Jr. Antonio Davis, Devonte Davis, Hakeen Davis, Special Friends; Keith Edwards and Charles Okoro.

He Is Gone

You can shed tears that he is gone
Or you can smile because he has lived

You can close your eyes and pray that he will come back
Or you can open your eyes and see all that he has left

Your heart can be empty because you can't see him
Or you can be full of the love that you shared

You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday

You can remember him and only that he is gone
Or you can cherish his memory and let it live on

You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back
Or you can do what he would want: smile, open your eyes, love and go on.
