*SO GO AND RUN FREE
So go and run free with the Angels
Dance around the golden clouds
For the Lord has chosen you to be with Him
And we should feel nothing but proud*

*Although He has taken you from us
And our pain a lifetime will last
Your memory will never escape us
But make us glad for the time we did have*

*Your face will always be hidden
Deep inside our hearts
Each precious moment you gave us
Shall never, ever depart*

*So go and run free with the Angels
As they sing so tenderly
And please be sure to tell them
To take good care of you for me*

Obituary for Reginald Fennell

Reginald Fennell (Little Breeze) transitioned on August 10, 2020 at the age of 58. He was born in Fort Lee, Virginia on March 8, 1962. He was the son of the late James Fennell, Jr. and Vivian T. Gunter.

Reginald was a native of Sampson County North Carolina and grew up in Garland and was a member of Garland First Baptist Church. He graduated from Garland High School and upon graduation he enlisted in the U. S. Airforce. After leaving the Airforce, he held various jobs before starting his own Audio-Visual Company.

Reggie had a passion for cooking, especially grilling. He learned to cook by watching his father and grandmothers.

His love for life, sense of humor, kind heart and sharp wit will be deeply missed.

Reggie was preceded in death by his father, James E. Fennell, Jr. and Stepfather, Rev. Handy Gunter, Jr. He leaves precious memories to his beloved mother, Vivian T. Gunter, his siblings, Pamela F. Kendrick (Bobby) of Upper Marlboro, MD, Cheryl F. Blakes (Tony) of Upper Marlboro, MD, Kathy F. Noble (Larry) of Upper Marlboro, MD, Eric Fennell of Raleigh, NC, Kevin Gunter, Sr. (Annette), Michelle Dawson (Titus), Nicole Stewart, and Dionne Gunter. He also leaves to mourn his fiancé Annette Alexander of Winston Salem, NC and a host of Aunts, Uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

7I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: 2 Timothy 4: 7
