

Order of Service

Prelude

Opening Prayer
The Lord's Prayer

Song – Wind Beneath my Wings
Terry McLamb

Old Testament Scripture
Psalm 91

Remarks
Monica Meeks, daughter
Dail McLamb, sister

Song – Great is Thy Faithfulness
Vanessa McLamb

Words of Assurance
Reverend Dr. Alvin McLamb, Presiding Elder
Columbia-Camden Palmetto Conference
A.M.E. Zion Church

Committal
Reverend McLamb

Final remarks
Butler & Son Funeral Home

Closing Prayer & Benediction

*God said, Eve would be the mother of all the nations.
But yet and still we only have segregation.
So let us be careful what we say and do
For God made no separation
Why should you?
Let us all try to get along and live together
For the world in which we live would be so much better by Ida P. McLamb - 1964*

Acknowledgments

We the family wish to extend our sincere gratitude and deepest appreciation for the expressions of love, concern, and kindness shown to us during this time of bereavement.

We thank you for every prayer, every contribution and for standing with us during this difficult time. We pray God's continued blessings to each and every one of you

May God Bless each of you.

Memorial Service Entrusted To:

*Butler & Son Funeral Home
Highway 24 East
Roseboro, North Carolina*

Well Done My Good and Faithful Servant

Ida Pearl (Coot) McLamb

September 4, 1947 - November 7, 2020

Wednesday, November 11, 2020 11:00 A.M.

Snow Hill Cemetery
Marion-Amos Road, FR-1301
Roseboro, NC 28382

Presiding Minister Alvinia Parker

OBITUARY

Ida Pearl McLamb born September 5, 1947 in Salemburg, North Carolina to the late Allen Watson McLamb and Louise Bannerman McLamb.

She was preceded in death by four brothers, Waymon McLamb, Andrew Mark McLamb, Steven Allen McLamb and Timothy Allen McLamb (at birth). She departed this life Saturday afternoon around 11:30 pm at her home. She was 73 years old.

Ida Pearl received her education through high school in the Sampson County School System graduating in June 1965. Her 1st job was a teacher's assistant at Charles E. Perry High School. Afterwards she worked at West Point Stevens as a textile manufacturer for 28 years. When that facility closed, Ida went back to school to focus on Early Childhood Education. She worked at Heavenly Heaven Daycare for a short while before opening her own daycare, Lady Lamb's Daycare. She retired from Panda Daycare prior to making Tennessee her home.

Ida Pearl is survived by her daughter, Monica (Framayne) Meeks and one and done grandson, Jared Meeks, Adams, Tennessee; three siblings: Alvinia Parker (Harry), Salemburg, North Carolina; Reverend Dr. Alvin Watson McLamb (Vanessa), Rock Hill, South Carolina; Dail Louise McLamb, Fayetteville, North Carolina; one sister-in law, Bobbie McLamb, Round Rock, Texas; two aunts, Mamie Lassiter; Charlotte, North Carolina; and Lorie Dixie Jones, Salemburg, North Carolina; and a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins.

