

Let Me Go
By: Christina Rossetti

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do
Miss me, but let me go.

Obituary

. Zesserine Butler was born on May 16, 1945, to the late Exxon Beckwith and Clarkie McNeill-Beckwith, in Sampson County, North Carolina. She departed this life and went to be with the Lord, Monday, December 21, 2020.

She received her education in the Sampson County Schools. She was saved in the Deliverance Center Church under the leadership of Pastor Richard LueHar Taylor until she became a full member of the Full Gospel Church of God of Christ, under the leadership of Pastor Corinthian Henry. She relocated to Fayetteville, North Carolina where she then served under Pastor Rudolph Tripp at Kingdom Building Baptist Church over the last twenty years as Minister Zesserine Butler.

Minister Butler was a woman of favor, prayer, faith, and virtue. She was no stranger to people, because of her love for others. She was able to inspire those she encountered. One of Minister Zesserine favorite songs was, "What you need Gods got it".

She leaves to cherish her precious memories, her husband of 30 years, Crawford Butler Sr., three sons: Toney A. (Carolyn) Williams, Crawford (Geraldine) Butler Jr., of Rochester, NY, Jay (Rose) Butler of Raleigh, N.C., Leon Butler of Plant City FL., three daughters: Michelle Butler of Alaska, Regetta Butler of Fayetteville, N.C., Patricia (Mike) McDonald of Rochester, NY., One Brother Willie D. Beckwith of Salemburg, N.C., Godson Daniel Devane, Twelve grandchildren, great-grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.
