Sharon's primary educational studies were with the Clinton City School System from which she graduated with the Clinton High School Class of 1973. She went on to further her education at Sampson Community College where she obtained her Early Childhood Education Associates degree.

Sharon was a former Sampson County head start teacher for 5+ years and then Worked for Coca-Cola / Canteen for 7+ years as Cafeteria Manager from which she retired.

Sharon accepted Christ and joined Poplar Grove Missionary Baptist Church at an early age, and was a faithful member. During this time, she has served in several roles in her church that she loved so dearly. Most known for the PGMBC Youth Choir Director. Sharon was one of the original founders of the youth choir. She was so faithful, she made sure that every person that was in her presence knew they were welcome and knew that they were loved.

Sharon was very family oriented. After the passing of our Mother, Grandmother, Aunt, Nana: Mrs. Marie Aycock; Sharon without hesitation took on the role of being the glue of the Aycock Family. It did not matter if you called day or night, she would always pick-up the phone for her family, and come to their rescue. Sharon was a mother to all her nieces and nephew's playing a major role in each of their lives.

And with that being said, it can be said without a doubt: That When The Role Is Called Up Yonder "Sharon" will be there.
