

*"Everything is so pretty here,
so white, so fresh, so new.
I wish that you could close your eyes so you could see it too.
Please try not to be sad for me.
Try to understand.
God is taking care of me
I'm in the shelter of His hands.*

*Here there is no sadness, and no sorrow and no pain.
Here there is no crying, and I'll never hurt again. Here it is so peaceful, when all the angels sing.
I really have to go for now... I've just got to try my wings."*

The Legacy of Minister Aggie Morrissey

For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord. Romans 8:38-39

Aggie Pearl Morrissey of Clinton, N.C. passed away on January 4, 2021. She was born to the late Aggie Lee Blue and James Henry Steven on March 18, 1937.

Family and friends were her passion and delight. Affectionately known as "Pearl" by some and "Miss Aggie" by others, she grew up in Faison, N.C. and became known throughout the community as a very caring and loving person who will forever live in the memory of her family and friends whose lives she touched forever. Truly possessing a servant's heart, she began her career in nursing at Sampson Memorial and Cape Fear Valley hospitals. After retiring from nursing, she and her husband, the late James "Ed" Morrissey purchased and ran a small grocery store, serving the needs of those in their community. During this period, she also became an ordained minister at the Greater Six Runs Missionary Baptist Church in Turkey, where she was a member until her passing. She loved missionary work and cherished the time visiting area nursing homes and taking AIDS patients to medical appointments. Known as a great cook, she was well known for her catering business throughout the community and especially at the Kenansville Eastern Missionary Baptist Association (KEMBA), which she enjoyed most of all. She also supervised the kitchen at the East Coast Migrant Head Start until she was physically unable to continue.

She leaves to cherish her precious memories: Yonnie Blanchette (Stephen) of San Antonio, Texas, Angela Moore of Clinton, North Carolina, Willie Tillery (stepson); grandchildren, Ashley Bairstow (Cameron), Christopher Blanchette, Jabori Moore, Trinity Moore, Tamika Tillery; great grandchildren, Deonte Tillery, Desmond Tillery; one brother Fred Blue; "sister cousins", Brenda Joyner (Jesse), Cheryl Oliver (Johnny), Barbara Simmons, Carolyn Boykin and Shelby Faison (whose support was invaluable over the last year); sisters in Christ, Rev. Oletha Troublefield, Ms. Shirley Moore, Rev. Mary King, Ms. Angelina Sebastian; Uncle Robert Blue, Aunt Dorothy Daughtry Blue; and numerous other family and friends.
