Reflections

Eddie Richburg Sr. was born on December 17th, 1938 as the oldest child to the late Mary Stewart-Richburg and late John Edward Richburg in New York, NY.

Eddie Sr. served our country in the Army division of the military. During his adult years, Eddie worked for and retired from the New York City Sanitation Department. A big kid at heart, Eddie always owned the latest gaming system and found enjoyment in wagering in various ways. He will be remembered for his independent, humble, positive, and jovial spirit.

Eddie is survived by his sister Lucille; former spouse Valerie Richburg, children Eddie Richburg Jr., Crystal Richburg-Oliver, and bonus son Andre Richburg (Elizabeth); grandchildren, Jasmyn Oliver-Parris, Jovan Oliver, Jaden Oliver, Brittany Richburg, and Kaleb Cruz; great-grandchildren Loren Parris, Zaire Parris, and Maliyah Richburg; nephew Terrence Payton, and great-nephew and nieces Terrell Payton Jr. (Nia), Keshawna Vanderhorst (Devin), and Venus Justice.
