Obituary

*“My Cross is not too heavy,
My road is not too rough,
Because God walks beside me,
To know this is enough.*

Walter Marvin Bullock, son of the late Joe and Jenny Bullock, was born in Warren County, North Carolina on April 17, 1939. He was called home on December 29, 2017.

Walter was educated in the Warren County public school system.

He accepted Christ as his savior with Oak Level United Church of Christ. There he served as a faithful member until his move to New York where he joined Friendship Baptist Church of Brooklyn, New York. He served as a deacon for over twenty years.

He later returned to North Carolina, and continued to serve as a deacon at Little Baltimore Baptist Church. In 2013, he became an Elder and founded his own church, and continued to minister until health began to decline. Through his determination, he did not let his health deter him from joining his brother, Reverend Herbert Bullock as assistant pastor of The Only Way Community Baptist Church.

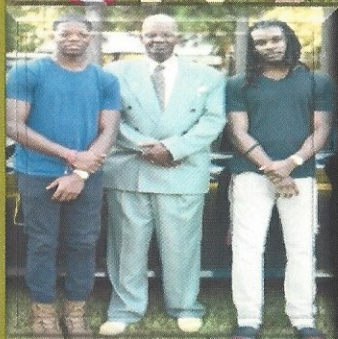

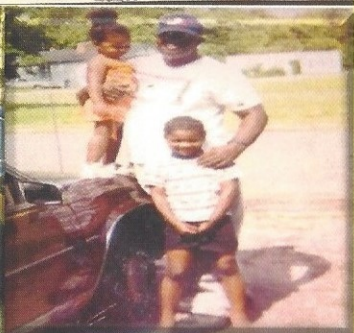

Walter was employed at Sunny Down, Inc. in Brooklyn, New York as a foreman for over twenty plus years. He also served as a medical transportation driver for Northampton County DSS of Jackson, NC for more than ten years. In his leisure time, he enjoyed fishing, playing his guitar, and spending time with his children and grandchildren.

In addition to his parents, Walter is preceded in death by his beloved wife: Annie Mae Hawkins Bullock; one sister: Dorothy Bullock Williams, and three brothers: James Bullock, George Bullock, and Alexander Bullock.

He Leaves to cherish his memory, his children: Larry Bullock (Kenya) of Pensacola, Florida, Juanita Vaughn (Rusty) of Bronx, NY, Felicia Bullock of Weldon, NC, Arvel Bullock of Manhattan, NY, Melvin Bullock of Roanoke Rapids, NC, Darryl Bullock (Angela) of Winston Salem, NC, Shauna Bullock of Roanoke Rapids, NC, and Anthony Hubbard of Red House, VA; twenty-seven grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren two special nephews whom he loved as sons: Demetrius Hawkins of Roanoke Rapids, NC, and William Hawkins of Pfafftown, NC; his brother: Reverend Herbert Bullock (Essie) of Henderson, NC; two sisters: Annie Woods and Lucy Meadows both of Warrenton, NC; his sister-in-law: Mary Hawkins of Roanoke Rapids, NC; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.
