-THE OBITUARY -

Therefore it pleased the Almighty God in his infinite wisdom and divine love on Wednesday, January 15, 2020 to call our loving HAZEL DELORES HENDRICK to her eternal home in Glory.

Hazel's earthly life began on August 28, 1952 in Warren County, North Carolina. She was one of five children born to the parentage of the late Norvel Hendrick and Tishie Talley Hendrick.

At an early age, she confessed Christ and became a member of the Locust Grove Baptist Church. She received her education in the public schools of Warren County and graduated from North Warren High School.

After high school, Hazel relocated to Baltimore, Maryland to began her adult life. She worked at the McCormick Company for many years until it closed.

Hazel enjoyed life, and her favorite pastime was mostly watching old western movies, which she had seen them all. She had a humorous spirit, always cracking jokes, laughing, treasuring her two most prized possessions – her two Buicks. Hazel LOVED the City of Baltimore, but most of all, she loved her Mama, and returned home to assist with her aid before her own health began to decline.

Left to cherish a fun-filled and loving life are: two brothers, Norvell Hendrick (Patricia) of Macon, North Carolina and McCoy Simm Hendrick (Melody) of Lusby, Maryland; one sister-in-law, Helen Hendrick of Brooklyn, New York; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by: one sister, Debra Hendrick and one brother, Albert Hendrick.

-I'M FREE -

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard him call;
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found that place at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss;
Ah yes, these things, I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much;
Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.

Perhaps my time seems all too brief;
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

-TO OUR SISTER-

The angels gathered near your bed,
So very close to you,
For they knew the pain and suffering
You were going through,

We thought about so many things,
As we held tightly to your hand,
Oh, how we wished that you were
Strong and happy once again.

But your eyes were looking homeward,
to that place beyond the sky,
Where Jesus held his outstretched arms,
It was time to say good-bye.

We struggled with our selfish thoughts,
for we wanted you to stay,
So we could walk and talk again,
like we did just yesterday.

But Jesus knew the answer
And we knew you loved Him so,
So we gave to you life's greatest gift,
The gift of letting go.
