The Expression of Special thanks

The family of Marinda Davis gratefully acknowledges and appreciates the expressions of sympathy, kindness and love shown to us. Your many prayers, telephone calls, text messages, cards, and words of encouragement have been overwhelming. THANK YOU! We are deeply grateful for all of you who loved her as much as we do! We pray God’s richest blessings upon each and every one of you!

Remembering Marinda....

Marinda Louise Thrower Davis was born in Wise, North Carolina, on May 10, 1943, to the late Gilford and Nora Davis Thrower. She peacefully departed this life on Monday, September 6, 2021, while at home.

“Rindy,” as she was known to family and close friends, graduated from North Warren High School in June 1960 and later accepted a position in the school’s office. She frequently attended her class reunions and assisted in helping to establish a DC/MD chapter of the Alumni Association.

In March 1966, Marinda married Mack Linsey Davis and they relocated to the District of Columbia. Together they raised five children and two grandchildren! She worked for the Federal Government for 33+ years, retiring in September 2000! Marinda served in excellence with the Department of Treasury; the Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations; the Council on Environmental Quality (CEQ) and the Office of the U.S. Trade Representative (USTR). She rarely shared that both CEQ and USTR fell under the leadership of the Executive Office of the President of the United States, which provided many opportunities for travel within the U.S. and abroad, as well as allowed for attendance at various White House events. Marinda never boasted about her opportunities and often declined invitations that many others would have gladly accepted!

She accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age and faithfully attended Locust Grove Baptist Church in Wise. Marinda continued to grow in faith, grace and stature while serving in various capacities at Saint John Freewill Baptist Church in Washington, DC; Peace Baptist Church in Washington, DC; and the First Baptist Church of Glenarden in Landover, MD, where she was a dedicated member in several active ministries. Marinda returned home to Locust Grove, year after year, to support the annual Homecoming and other events.

Marinda was a country girl that couldn’t wait to get out of the fields and responsibility of farming and too-quiet country living! She loved to cook and seldom ate fast foods or at restaurants! Marinda truly loved God and every conversation almost always turned into a sermonette. She was no-nonsense and would quickly tell you the truth, whether you asked or not. She thoroughly enjoyed spending time with family and friends, as well as watching college and professional sports, including an on-again, off-again relationship with her beloved Washington Redskins (now the Washington Football Team)!

Marinda leaves to cherish her memory, her children: Patricia Tuck Moss (James) of Manson, North Carolina; Charmaine Thrower Franklin (Ray Sr) of Upper Marlboro, MD; Marquis Thrower Sr. of Hyattsville, MD; Darryl Davis (Tanna) of Hyattsville, MD; Marlo Davis Haskins (Kevin) of Washington, DC; and adopted son, Victor “Scooby” Parker (Carolyn) of Washington, DC; 11 grandchildren; 12 great- grandchildren; one brother-in-law: Charles Davis (Lizzie) of Wise, NC; and three sisters-in-law: Lottie Davis Terry (James) of Henderson, NC; Mary Thrower of Spring Hope, NC: and Alma Thrower of Philadelphia, PA; nieces, nephews, cousins, classmates, neighbors, former coworkers, church family and friends too numerous to mention!

She was preceded in death by both parents, siblings (Gilford “Sonny” Thrower, Jr., Alexander “Doug” Thrower, Mary “Sis” Johnson and Mildred “Smokey” Howard), husband Mack, daughter, Asonya “Mita” Thrower and grand-daughter, Jocelyn Watts.

A Tribute to My Grandmother

Marcus Davis, Grandson

“Hey Grandma Lady! You are the most amazing, beautiful, loving, caring, humblest, selfless, trustworthy, God-fearing woman. I thank the Lord for blessing me with you. Because of you, we all are who we are. You have held our family together since before I was born and there is no way to repay you or give you enough thanks for all you have done for us. You have afforded us all the best livelihood and lifestyle we could have imagined. Most of all you have given us the Lord and besides that we could not ask for anything better or more. Because of you I have hope, I have love and you taught me that aside from God, family is the most important and love goes hand in hand. Thank you for loving me and for carrying us all through the trials, tribulations, and storms of life. I apologize for being hard-headed but I want you to know that I heard everything you said and internalized every lesson. You have given everyone as much as you could and we are more than blessed to have you guide us through life. I love you more than I can express and have faith that the Lord will fix it all as he sees fit.”

- Our Family Chain -

Little did we know that day,
that God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
in death we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you,
you did not go alone,
For part of us went with you,
the day God called you home.

You left us beautiful memories,
your love is still our guide.
And though we cannot see you,
you are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same.
But as God calls us one by one,
the chain will link again.
