Life Reflections for Fredrick James Garnett

Fredrick James (Pap) Garnett was born on December 19, 1935 in Baxley, Georgia to the late Annie Flowers Garnett and the late Will Simmons.

He accepted Christ and joined the St. James A.M.E. Church as a child. Brother Garnett served the church faithfully in various positions throughout his life until his health failed. He served as Trustee, Steward, Sunday School Superintendent, Sunday School Teacher, Steward Pro Tem and the Bus Ministry.

Brother Garnett served his country for four years as a member of the United States Air Force. He was a member of the Masonic Order serving as a loyal member of Sumner Lodge #10.

He retired from Hazlehurst Mills after more than 30 years of devoted service. He was employed with C. M. Brown Funeral Home as an attendant for 63 years. Brother Garnett was also a well- known appliance repairman.

In addition to his parents, Brother Garnett was proceeded in death by a daughter, Christy Garnett, grandson, Jawuan Lewis, five sisters and three brothers.

Fredrick was a loving husband to his wife of 41 years, Annette Gibbs Garnett; a loving and devoted father to: Etha Jean (Billy) Carter, Jackie (Perry) Washington, Judy Copeland, Kenneth Bell and Randy (Kisha) Bell; 13 grandchildren: Kengi, Marcus, Kayla, Chris, Bishop, Genis, Kenneth, Jr., Erica, Marcellous, Tevin, Ryson and Ryken; 11 great-grandchildren and 4 great-great-grandchildren; brothers and sisters-in-law: Rose Marie (Gene) Parson, Karen (Billy) Fletcher, Robert (Shirley) Gibbs, Thomas, Sue (Michael) Bouie; Bessie (Robert) Bryant, Fredrick (Gwen) Gibbs; special friends: Carolyn Reaves, Donnie Reaves (who was like a son), Theodore Wilkerson, Joyce Skipper, and James Ganes III.
