

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down
in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil;
for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;
thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Amen

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or prepared a bite to eat or just sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent a floral spray, if so we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words a friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all, but thought of us today. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you anyway. God's continued blessings to each of you.

The Obituary

"And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Jesus Christ."
—Phillipians 4:7

A Time To Be Born

James Edward Coker was born on October 16, 1966 to the late Walter Coker Sr., and Annie Mae Coker. James was one of five children born to this union. A brother, Walter Coker Jr. (CoCo) and sister, Sheila Coker preceded him in death.

A Time to Learn

James received his education from the Grady County Public Schools and was a high school graduate.

A Time to Be Saved

James confessed Christ at an early age and joined Little Bethel AME Church of Cairo, GA.

A Time to Labor

James was a dedicated worker for the City of Cairo for several years during the early part of his life. During his later years, he worked in landscaping until his health failed.

A Time to be with the Lord

James departed this life on Sunday, December 2, 2018 at Grady General Hospital. He had a full and enjoyable life that included much laughter and fun times with family and friends. James will be missed by all who knew and loved him. Although he will no longer be apart of our day-to-day reality, his legacy of love and family will remain in our hearts forever.

A Time to Remember

James leaves to cherish his memory, a devoted significant other: Mary Watkins of Cairo, GA; a loving daughter: Shantika Moore of Cairo, GA; two brothers: Freddie Coker of Cairo, GA and Alvin Coker of Valdosta, GA; three aunts: Rosetta Richardson of Green Cove Spring FL, Earnestine Washington of Cairo, GA, and Vera Baker of Miami, FL; five uncles: Houston Robinson of Cairo, GA, Ray Robinson of Detroit, MI, Hubert Thomas of Thomasville, GA, Chris Thomas of Miami, FL, and Emory Thomas of Cairo, GA; thirteen grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; and a host of other relatives, nephews, nieces, and friends.

James was also a father figure and played a very active role in the lives of Tamesha Bowens, Demonta Moore, Brit-tany Moore, Cynthia Mills, Cleveland Mills, Marilyn Mills, all of Cairo, GA; and Lisa Mills of Laplaz, LA. He loved and touched the lives of each of these individuals, who loved and respected him dearly in return.
