

PSALM 23

"The Lord is my shepherd,
I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths
of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of
mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil,
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall
follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

The Obituary

On Monday, January 21, 2019 our Heavenly Father called Marvin from his labor to his reward.

Marvin E. Brown was born November 15, 1942 to Julia Mae Brown in Jacksonville, Florida. He confessed his life to Christ at an early age. He attended Cedar Spring AME Church {school) in Whigham, Georgia and went to school in Grady County as well. He began his lifelong career in New York City and in Brooklyn, New York.

Throughout his illustrious life he was loved and admired by those who knew him. Many of them have been inspired by his love of people because he was a people person. Marvin E. Brown left to cherish his memories ; one daughter, Sara Lee Brown, of Staten Island, New York; and his fiance Susann Eagan and two adopted daughters Laura and Leah all of Switzerland; three brothers Homer Wilson (Angela) of Houston, Texas, James Wilson (Clayzell)of Ella Bell, Georgia, and Jerry Wilson (Gale) of Savannah, Georgia and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

His mother Julia Mae Dove, and two brothers, George Jackson and Randy Wilson, preceded him in death.
