

A Tribute To Our BROTHER

Sometimes it's hard to understand, and harder to see thy will be done when sorrow comes and sadness fills thy day but faith was meant for times like these and if we take God's hand with loving wisdom, he will help our hearts to understand.

GRANDADDY

Grandaddy ... the only thing I had close to a dad. My grandad loved all of us dearly and always made sure everyone was taken care of even if he didn't feel like it.
Don't get me wrong Bobby Joe didn't mind telling someone no! He didn't play the radio but his heart was in the right place. My grandaddy showed me how a real man is supposed to conduct himself he was an excellent husband to my grandmother. A perfect father to my mother and my aunt and uncle , and an amazing grandfather as well to me and my brothers and cousins. I love you grandaddy so much you will forever live through us. Until we meet again.

Obituary

Mr Bobby Joe Jenkins, Sr. was born on Feb. 23, 1945 to the late Henry Jenkins and Josie Bell Taylor-Jenkins. He attended Mitchell County Schools- Oakgrove Elementary and continued on to Camilla Consolidated High School.

At an early age Bobby was baptized and joined Salem Missionary Baptist Church, where he attended until he moved to Boynton Beach, Florida. Going back and forth he met his wife of 51 years, Joyce McGee Jenkins. They resided in Boynton Beach, FL where they raised their three children.

Bobby was employed for Langston Bag Company for over 40 years running a burlap plant that supplied a wide range of landscape nurseries and had recently retired.

After retirement, he enjoyed traveling back and forth from Florida to his Georgia home. He and his wife purchased the home together for vacationing. Bobby especially enjoyed the peaceful life in Georgia. It's where he truly called home. He also enjoyed hanging around the house with his buddies. They were often spotted on the grill cooking ribs, rabbit, coon to God knows what! Most of all he enjoyed being around his family and telling all the good ol' family history.

After a short battle with cancer, he departed this life on January 27, 2019.

He leaves to cherish his memories, his wife Joyce Jenkins, son Bobby Jenkins, Jr. (Angela), daughters: Jacqueline Hatten (James), Janice Jenkins (Jermaine); grandkids: Gary Hyde, Gregory Hyde, Jazlyn Hatten, Bobby Jenkins Ill, Erica Graham, Jakiya Bouldin, Joycelyn Jenkins, 5 great grands: Camron, Gavin, Garrett, D'Angelo and Serenity; one sister: Hattie Mae Hardemon; one brother: James Brown; Goddaughters: Valoria Brown, Jacqueline Clarke, host of nieces, nephews; a special nephew: Charles Hammonds; a few special nieces: special friends: Taylor, Jack, Fred, Bo.

He was preceded in death by his parents: Josie Bell Taylor Jenkins and Henry Jenkins; brothers: Johnny, Gerry, Charles, Tommy Lee and sisters: Isa Mae, Mildred, Dyrel, Julia Mae, Louvenia and Alma Mae.
