She was preceded in death by her father, JR. Broomfield; a sister, Jessie Merle Broomfield and a loving grandmother, Mary Francis McClendon.

*If that day came again and only had a beginning
I would pray to GOD that it had no ending
So I could tell you how much I LOVE YOU
And regardless of what goes on in life you'll make it through.
To accomplish all of your goals and never stop dreaming,
Because in you, I never stopped believing.
I have met many people and formed many bonds,
Some of my most cherished moments are with my sons.
You are my KINGS and I need for you to be strong.
For it is through you and everyone else that I Carol Ann Broomfield will live on.*

Recessional

*I didn't want to leave you like this, but I had to go.
I know that you are sad and grieving, but I just want you to know.
I purposefully made you laugh instead of cry,
Because one day the memories we made will help get you by.
I freely spoke the words that I said so you would not forget
To embrace each moment and live life with no regret
When you think of me I want you to smile.
And if you feel the need to cry then just do it for a little while.*
