Obituary

Mary Henrietta Adams was born on September 23, 1964 in West Palm Beach, FL to Joe Edward Adams and Ella Mae Adams. Mary confessed Christ as her “Lord and Savior” during her early childhood years at Greater Bethel Primitive Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Robert J. Henley.

Mary graduated from Palm Beach Gardens High School and later went on to obtain her Bachelors degree in Early Childhood Education from Palm Beach Atlantic University.

Mary was the very essence of Love. She had a passion for helping others. Her love for God was displayed through her actions and service in ministry and throughout the community.

She had a desire for leading and guiding youth to God and teaching them about the love of Christ. Mary was known as the neighborhood mom. She was always willing to take action in order to provide, protect and nurture those in need. Daughter of God, Faithful Servant, Virtuous Woman she is and will always be.

Her legacy continues through her loving children: Cortney and Yolanda Adams of Aurora, IL; Norman Sherrod II of Orlando, FL; two beautiful grandchildren: Cortrell Adams and Constance Adams. She is survived by two sisters: Patricia Robinson of Thomasville, GA and Jacqueline Labbe of Whigham, GA; one brother: Eugene Forbes (Cassandra) of Tallahassee, FL; and a host of cherished nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives and friends.

She was preceded in death by her sister: Joann Dorsey.

TO MY FAMILY AND FRIENDS....

Be strong in the Lord, where all my help comes from.

When sad, think about the good times we've shared!

I'm in a better place where there are no more worries, pain, sickness or work.

My stay on Earth may have come to an end.

I'm resting in peace! Please don't weep or be sad.

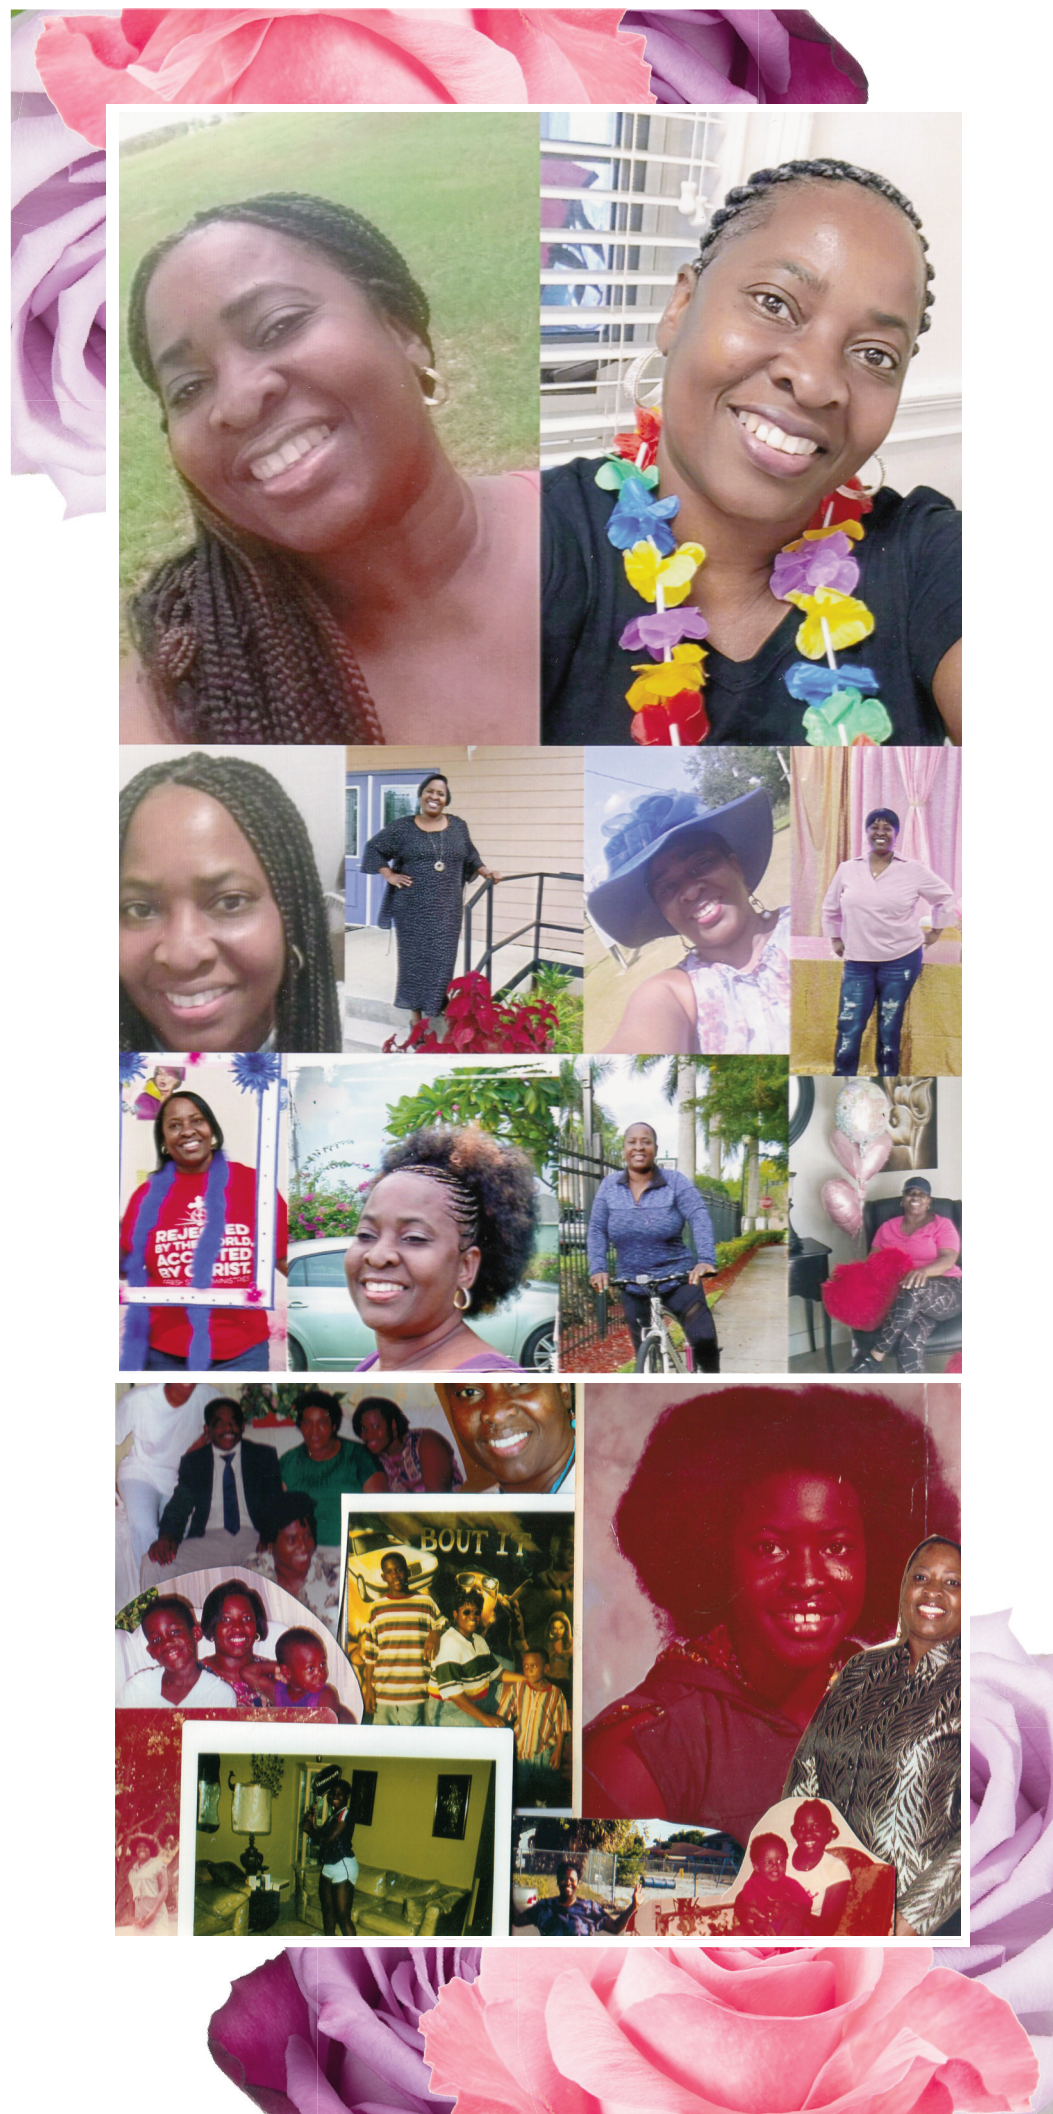

Be strong. I love you all, and make sure you love one another.

Comfort and take care of each other.

God is with everyone of you and

I will forever be in all of your hearts!

*I love you all,
Mary H. Adams*
