Consider the Shamrock

By Kelly Roper

Consider the shamrock, how St. Patrick said
It represents the Holy Trinity.
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,
And the Heavenly realms that be.
We're taught that if we follow God
and strive to do His will,
One day we'll go to our reward
In His shining city on a hill.
Take heart that our dearly departed,
Now knows the face of God,
And the Lord's presence radiates all around,
An encompasses him/her with love.
So each time you see a shamrock,
Remember your loved one that's passed.
Strive to be worthy of Heaven,
Where you'll be reunited at last.

Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparent a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.*

Michael Thomas Keaveney

Michael Thomas Keaveney of Greensboro, GA formerly of Franklin, Mass died Saturday, June 25, 2022, at his residence at the age of 72. Born July 7, 1949, in Boston, Mass he was the son of the late Martin Joseph Keaveney and Gertrude "Jean" O'Connell Keaveney both of Waltham, Mass.
