The Old Rugged Cross

*On a hill far away stood an old rugged cross,
The emblem of suffering and shame;
And I love that old cross where the dearest and best
For a world of lost sinners was slain.*

*On that old rugged cross so despised by the world,
Has a wondrous attraction for me;
For the dear lamb of God left his glory above,
To bear it to dark Calvary.*

*In the old rugged cross, stained with blood so divine,
A wondrous beauty I see;
For 'twas on that old cross Jesus suffered and died,
To pardon and sanctify me.*

*To the old rugged cross I will ever be true,
Its shame and reproach gladly bear;
Then He'll call me some day to my home far away,
Where His glory forever I'll share.*

*I'll cherish the old rugged cross
Till my trophies at last I lay down;
I will cling to the old rugged cross'
And exchange it some day for a crown.*

Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:

for thou art with me: thy rod and

thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:

thou anointest my head with oil:

my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Lawrence Albert Baldwin “Bill” Corry, Sr.

Lawrence Albert Baldwin “Bill” Corry, Sr., age 92, of Greensboro, Georgia died Sunday, August 14, 2022 at his residence. Born in Greene County on December 30, 1929, he was the son of the late Reba Lucille Parker and James Clinton Corry. Having lived all of his life in Greene County, Bill was a graduate of Greensboro High School and attended Georgia Tech. Bill proudly served his country in the United States Army. For more than 35 years he had a successful career with the Georgia Department of Transportation as a Civil Engineer. For many years he was the owner and operator of L. A. Corry Surveying. As long as health permitted, he was an active member of the First Presbyterian Church of Greensboro as an Elder, Sunday School teacher and served as a representative for NEGA Presbytery at General Assembly. He was always working, especially in his yard. He enjoyed eating breakfast with his “coffee” group and, when he was younger, loved to fly his airplane. He was also a member of the Jaycees and a Zoning Board representative.

In addition to his wife and the mother of his children, Betty Ann Moore Corry, he was preceded in death by his son Lawrence Albert “Larry” Corry, Jr.; sister, Betty Jo Evans; and brothers, James Corry and Charles Williams. Survivors include his wife, Ann Corry; two daughters, Susan Spearman of Greensboro, GA and Jill Jackson and husband Larry of Eatonton, GA; son, Eric Corry and wife Sara Ann of Dawsonville, GA; a sister, Ann Boswell of Greensboro, GA; and nine grandchildren, Catherine Spearman, Emmy Corry, Merrie Hayes Byne (Josh), Ella Corry, Margaret Corry, Chip Spearman, Win Corry (Katherine), Nick Hayes and Sam Corry; great grandchildren, Finley Byne, Kacie Byne and Reid Corry; other relatives and friends.

Memorial services will be held Saturday, August 20, 2022 at 3:00 p.m. at the First Presbyterian Church of Greensboro with the Rev. Meg Jackson Clark and Rev. Dr. Ford G’Segner officiating. A reception will follow in the church fellowship hall. The family requests that all memorials be made to the First Presbyterian Church, 117 S. Main Street, Greensboro, GA 30642.
