Rev. John W. Pike Officiating

We remember a life today

*and all that made him the man he was –
his work,
his gifts,
all that he enjoyed
and found rewarding...
calling to mind
his beginnings,
his journey,
and the wonderful stories
we love to share about him.*

We honor a life today

*his character,
his integrity,
his commitment to the things he stood for—recognizing his good heart,
his sense of humor,
and the helping hand
he so often extended to others.*

We Celebrate a life today

*and all that earned him
the love, the admiration,
the respect of family and friends,
feeling grateful for our time with him,
enriched for having known him,
feeling blessed to have his remarkable spirit
he so often extended to others,
here among us forever.*

It Is Well with My Soul

When peace, like a river, attendeth my way,
When sorrows like sea billows roll;
Whatever my lot, Thou hast taught me to say,
“It is well, it is well with my soul”

It is well (it is well) with my soul (with my soul)
It is well, it is well with my soul.

Though Satan should buffet, though trials should come,
Let this blessed assurance control,
That Christ has regarded my helpless estate,
And hath shed His own blood for my soul.

It is well (it is well) with my soul (with my soul)
It is well, it is well with my soul.

My sin, oh the bliss of this glorious thought!
My sin, not in part but the whole,
Is nailed to the cross, and I bear it no more,
Praise the Lord, praise the Lord, O my soul!

It is well (it is well) with my soul (with my soul)
It is well, it is well with my soul.

And Lord haste the day when the faith shall be sight,
The clouds be rolled back as a scroll;
The trump shall resound, and the Lord shall descend,
Even so, it is well with my soul.

It is well (it is well) with my soul (with my soul)
It is well, it is well with my soul.

In the Garden

*I come to the garden alone,
While the dew is still on the roses;
And the voice I hear, falling on my ear,
The Son of God discloses.*

*He speaks, and the sound of his voice
Is so sweet the birds hush their singing;
And the melody that he gave to me
Within my heart is ringing.*

*I'd stay in the garden with him
Tho' the night around me be falling;
But he bids me go; thru the voice of woe,
His voice to me is calling.*

*And he walks with me, and he talks with me,
And he tells me I am his own,
And the joy we share as we tarry there,
None other has ever known.*

The family thanks the many friends and relatives who have offered their love, prayers and support and the dedicated staff of his hospice team.
