Rev. Bill Thigpen Officiating

Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:

for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:

thou anointest my head with oil:

my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

We Remember

*At the rising of the sun and at its going down,
we remember him.*

*At the blowing of the wind and the chill of winter,
we remember him.*

*At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring,
we remember him.*

*At the blueness of the skies and in the warmth of summer,
we remember him.*

*At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn,
we remember him.*

*At the beginning of the year and when it ends,
we remember him.*

*As long as we live, he too will live; for he is now a part of us,
as we remember him.*

*When we are weary and in need of strength,
we remember him.*

*When we have joy we crave to share,
we remember him.*

*When we have decisions that are difficult to make,
we remember him.*

*When we have achievements that are based on his,
we remember him.*

*As long as we live, he too will live; for he is now a part of us,
as we remember him.*
