Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me: thy rod and
thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.*

thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.*

Give us this day our daily bread.

*And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.*

*And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.*

*For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.*

Rosaleta Sebree “Rose” Robertson

Rosaleta Sebree Robertson (Rose) of Greensboro, Georgia passed away on February 25, 2019 at Augusta University Hospital after a short illness. She was 74. Rose was born on March 12, 1944 in Pascola, Missouri to the late Rosa and Wesley Sebree. She graduated from high school in San Antonio, Texas. Rose met Jerry Robertson during the time she worked for Scott Paper Company in St. Louis. On August 17, 1990, the two were married and the couple enjoyed twenty-nine years of marriage. Rose and Jerry lived in Chicago for a short time, then retired to Savannah, GA, then moved to Bonita Springs, FL, and finally settled into the Reynolds community in Greensboro GA where they’ve lived for twelve years. Rose was known for organizing and leading social events, including luncheons, parties and events for charities. Rose also enjoyed global travel and playing in the 9-hole golf group. As an organ donor, Rose’s life will save lives and her spirit will be able to live on in others.

She is survived by her children Matthew Biere (Tricia) of Kirkwood, Missouri and Susan Biere (Maggie) of Nashville, Tennessee; step-children, Julie Acker (John) of Baltimore, Maryland and Jay Robertson (Karen) of Baltimore, Maryland; two grandsons Adam, Ryan; and four step-grandsons Christopher, Michael, Jack and Tim; sisters, Judy, Mickey and Vickey. She was preceded in death by her sister Geneva.

A funeral mass will be held on Monday, March 11, 2019 at 11:00 a.m. at Christ Our King and Savior Catholic Church, 6341 Lake Oconee Parkway, Greensboro, GA 30642 with Father Michael Silloway officiating. A reception will follow at the Christ Our King & Savior Catholic Church Sacred Heart Social Hall.
