

In Loving Memory

A Celebration of the Life of
Phillip “Phil” Allen McIntosh
April 19, 1960 – March 8, 2019

Saturday, March 16, 2019 – 12:00 p.m.

In Loving Memory Of

Phillip “Phil” Allen McIntosh

April 19, 1960 – March 8, 2019

Memorial Services at

McCommons Chapel

Greensboro, Georgia

Saturday, March 16, 2019 – 12:00 p.m.

Rev. Hugh Hendrickson Officiating

On and On

*One day we'll disappear together in a dream
However short or long our lives are going to be
I will live in you or you will live in me
Until we disappear together in a dream*

*Please don't cry we're designed to die
You can't deny even the gentlest tide
On and on and on we'll be together yeah
On and on and on*

-Wilco

A Celebration of the Life of
Phillip “Phil” Allen McIntosh
Saturday, March 16, 2019 – 12:00 p.m.

Prelude	Paula Stewart
Processional	Paula Stewart
Words of Welcome	Rev. Hugh Hendrickson
Prayer	Rev. Hugh Hendrickson
Memories of Phil	Video
Words of Remembrance	Kevin McIntosh
Words of Comfort	Colt Steingraber
Hey Hey, My My (Neil Young)	Played by Sean McIntosh
Remarks From Friends and Family
Death is Nothing At All	Conor Veeneman
On and On (Wilco)
Recessional	Paula Stewart

The family thanks the many friends and relatives who have offered their love and support. Please join us for lunch at the family home after the service - 1631 A P Roper Road, Greensboro, GA 30642.

Phillip “Phil” Allen McIntosh

April 19, 1960 – March 8, 2019

Phillip “Phil” Allen McIntosh

Phil McIntosh, loving father, brother and son, avid musician and outdoorsman, was born on April 19th, 1960 in Kendallville, Indiana. He departed this life in March 2019, in his home of 20 years on Lake Oconee, which he loved so much. Phil’s love and pride for his children knows no bounds.

Phil was born to parents Anne and Mark McIntosh. He lived in Marion, IN and graduated from Marion High School where he was a star athlete. He went to Indiana University, in Bloomington, IN and loved IU basketball. After college, he lived in Texas and Chicago before moving to Atlanta, GA to raise a family. A fan of the University of Georgia Bulldawgs, he loved game day with his kids at the lake.

He will be remembered for his dry wit, kind heart, and how he was never one to miss out on an opportunity for a joke. The room was always full of loud music and even louder laughter when he was around. He taught his children fairness, integrity, resilience, and pride in themselves. Phil loves great music, good food, warm fires, and days spent on the dock. He went to many concerts with his children and friends every year of his life.

Family always came first for Phil. He leaves behind his three children, Erin, Tara and Sean, his brother, Kevin McIntosh, and his dogs, Coco and Gonzo. He was loved by so many people and was one of the friendliest, kindest people in the world, always fast to make a new friend. To his kids - WPPDT? In lieu of flowers, please send donations to the ASPCA or Humane Society of America.

A memorial service is planned for Saturday, March 16th, 2019 at 12:00pm at the McCommons Funeral Home in Greensboro, Georgia. McCommons Funeral Home, 109 W. Broad Street, Greensboro, GA 30642 (706)453-2626, is in charge of arrangements. Visit us at www.mccommonsfuneralhomes.com to sign the online guest register.

McCommons Funeral Home
P.O. Box 29 - 109 W. Broad St.
Greensboro, Georgia 30642

Callaway Funeral Home
208 N. Rhodes Street
Union Point, Georgia 30669

www.mccommonsfuneralhome.com

“Over 100 Years and 5 Generations of Service”