

In Loving Memory

*If we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord.
So, whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord. (Romans 14:8)*

A Celebration of the Life of
Frederick “Rick” Eugene Wolfert

August 3, 1954 – April 9, 2019

Funeral Service

Lake Oconee Church
Greensboro, Georgia

Saturday, April 13, 2019 – 11:00 a.m.

Rev. Andy McQuaid Officiating

Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:

for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:

thou anointest my head with oil:

my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

A Celebration of the Life of
Frederick “Rick” Eugene Wolfert
Saturday, April 13, 2019 – 11:00 a.m.

Prelude

Processional

“You Raise Me Up” by Josh Groban

Opening Prayer Pastor Andy McQuaid

Reading: “The Weaver” Karen Cheek, Rick’s sister

“Well Done” by the Afters

Eulogies shared by Steve Wolfert, Rick’s brother; Maggie
Brady, Rick’s daughter; Paul Wolfert Rick’s son

“The Untitled Hymn” by Chris Rice

Words of Comfort Pastor Andy McQuaid

“10,000 Reasons” Congregation

Concluding Prayer Pastor Andy McQuaid

Recessional “Swing Low Sweet Chariot” by Robert Robinson

The family thanks the many friends and relatives who have offered their love and support.

Let the Peace of Christ rule in your hearts (Colossians 3:15)

Frederick “Rick” Eugene Wolfert

Frederick “Rick” Eugene Wolfert, 64, of Greensboro, GA passed away peacefully on April 9, 2019 at St. Mary’s Good Samaritan Hospital in Greensboro, GA. Rick was born on August 3, 1954 in St. Louis, Missouri to his parents Mary Catherine Flood and Leland “Lee” Wolfert. Rick went to LSU on a basketball scholarship—taking it all in as a wide-eyed, first-generation college student. He met his wife, Holly, during their Sophomore year at LSU and they never looked back. They graduated in 1976, married in February 1977, and gave birth to their daughter, Maggie, in September of 1979, and their son, Paul, in November 1982.

After graduating from LSU, Rick worked for Proctor and Gamble and Connecticut General before joining US Leasing, which was the beginning of his 35-year career in commercial finance. He held executive level roles at US Leasing, KeyCorp Leasing, Heller Financial, GE and CIT Group. In 2007, Rick’s passion, expertise and drive led him to partner with a private equity firm to start his own Commercial Finance company. He named the firm “Tygris” in honor of he and Holly’s LSU experience. He most recently served on the board of Stadion Money Management.

Rick was fortunate to travel the world and was always planning the next vacation. He cherished father-son weekends that included fishing, playing golf and attending the SEC tournament, and there was nothing he loved more than the annual family trip to Tiger Stadium. Over the past 8 years, he spent much of his free time in the mountains where he enjoyed trail rides, beautiful mountain views, and a good game of shuffle board.

Rick was honored to be inducted into the E.J. Ourso College of Business Hall of Distinction in 2001. His passion and commitment to his Alma Mater led him to serve in several key leadership roles including the LSU Foundation Finance Committee, the Business School Dean’s Advisory Committee, and co-chair of the capital campaign for the new LSU Business School Complex. In their community, Rick served on the Board of the Oconee Performing Arts Society and recently consulted with the Lake Oconee Academy Foundation on the capital campaign to expand the school facilities. Prior to that he was Foundation Chairman for St. Mary's Good Samaritan Hospital leading the campaign for the building of the new hospital in Greensboro. He was also Chairman of the Board for Good Samaritan hospital and on the Board of St. Mary's in Athens. St. Mary's Good Samaritan Hospital turned out to be much more personal than perhaps he ever could have imagined. It was there that he passed away peacefully, surrounded by family, friends and hospital colleagues who loved him and cared for him until the very end.

Rick is survived by his wife, Holly Allgood Wolfert, his daughter Maggie Brady and son in law, Vince Brady, his son Paul Wolfert and daughter in law Hannah Wolfert, his brother Steve Wolfert and sister-in-law Valinda Wolfert, his sister Karen Cheek and brother in law Dave Cheek, and five beautiful grandchildren – Grace, Luke, and Holly Brady and Charles and Mary Wolfert.

We will celebrate his life on April 13 at 11:00am at Lake Oconee Church in Greensboro. Pastor Andy McQuaid will officiate. Following the service there will be a reception at the Linger Longer Pavilion at Reynolds. There will be a burial service at Resthaven Gardens in Baton Rouge on April 20.

If we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord. So, whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord. (Romans 14:8)

McCommons Funeral Home, 109 W. Broad St., Greensboro, GA, (706) 453-2626, is in charge of arrangements. Visit us at www.mccommonsfuneralhome.com to sign the online guest register.

McCommons Funeral Home
P.O. Box 29 - 109 W. Broad St.
Greensboro, Georgia 30642

Callaway Funeral Home
208 N. Rhodes Street
Union Point, Georgia 30669

www.mccommonsfuneralhome.com

"Over 100 Years and 5 Generations of Service"