Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:

for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:

thou anointest my head with oil:

my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven hallowed be thy name.

Thy Kingdom come,
thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory.
forever. Amen.

I'll Fly Away

I'll Fly Away Some bright morning when this life is over
I'll fly away
To that home on God's celestial shore
I'll fly away

Refrain:

I'll fly away, oh glory
I'll fly away (in the morning)
When I die, hallelujah by and by
I'll fly away

When the shadows of this life have gone
I'll fly away
Like a bird from prison bars has flown
I'll fly away

Refrain

Just a few more weary days and then
I'll fly away
To a land where joys will never end
I'll fly away

Refrain

James Hinson Hall, Jr.

James Hinson Hall, Jr., 66, (Jim the Cable Guy) beloved husband, father, brother, grandfather, and friend, passed peacefully on May 12, 2019. He was born September 16, 1952, in Monroe, Louisiana, to James Hinson Hall, Sr. and Anne Lewis Hall and was the oldest of four children. He spent his childhood years in Louisiana and Mississippi but graduated from Sarasota High School in Sarasota, Florida. Jim wed his wife Peggy on November 27, 1982, and together they enjoyed over 37 years of marriage. Jobs in the cable television industry took him all over; he spent most of his career years living in Alpharetta, Georgia, working for Showtime Networks, Inc. With the expansion and growth of Plantation Cablevision, a family business, Jim and his family moved out to Lake Oconee in the late 1990s. Jim was inducted into the Cable Pioneers in 1998 for his innovation and dedication to the industry.

Jim was a member of Greensboro First United Methodist Church where he was not only generous in donations to missions but was instrumental in developing the video and sound systems at his church. Jim was always full of joy and the life of the party. He loved to sing and was known for his beautiful voice. He enjoyed playing American Six Wicket Croquet and was the Georgia State Champion for many years. It wasn't your average backyard croquet, it was a very difficult game. He always had time for his friends, offering a shoulder to cry on or a joke to laugh at. We will remember those happy times and his belly laugh will live on in our memories.

Jim is survived by his wife Peggy, daughter Ashley Thompson (Billy) and son Hinson Hall, grandson Anson Thompson, father James Hinson Hall, Sr., siblings John Hall (Paulette), Joel Hall, and Jan Dugan (Mark), and nieces and nephews Audrey Dugan, Josh Dugan (Abbie), Sean Dugan, and Hank Hall.

Jim will be interred at Walker United Methodist Church Cemetery following a service at Greensboro First United Methodist Church on May 14, 2019, at 2:00 PM. with Rev. Mike Morgan, Rev. Hugh Hendrickson, Pastor Merry Grayson and Dr. Jay Hodges officiating. Serving as pallbearers will be Andrew Maddox, David Altmiller, Billy Wagner, Donald Smith, Matt Fontana, and Chris Martin. In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to Greensboro First United Methodist Church, P O Box 216, Greensboro, GA 30642. McCommons Funeral Home, 109 W. Broad St., Greensboro, GA, (706) 453-2626, is in charge of arrangements. Visit us at www.mccommonsfuneralhome.com to sign the online guest register.
