“To Those I Love and Those Who Love Me”

*When I am gone, release me . . . Let me go,
I have fulfilled my duty here, you all know.
I gave to you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave to me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown,
But now it's time I traveled all alone.
To grieve awhile for me, if grieve you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It is only for a time that we must part,
So bless the memories within your heart.
Though you cannot see or touch me, I'll be near
And if you listen with your heart you'll hear
All my love around you from morn 'til night,
I'll forever have you in my sight.
And then when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and say,
“Welcome Home.”*

Footprints

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the Lord. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonging to him, and the other to the Lord. When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life. This really bothered him and he questioned the Lord about it. "Lord, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me." The Lord replied, "My son, My precious child, I love you, and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."
