Grand Ma

The sweet lady that remembered all her grandchildren and great grandchildren's birthdays and wanted to be there for each one.

The one that cooked Sunday dinner for everybody, even if they brought friends.

The one that worked hard all her life to have what little she had as far as possessions go.

The one that had the love of all her grandchildren, each one in their own way.

All of her grandchildren are grown, most with families of their own.

One grandson wanting to hold her hand, talk with her, and spend as much time as possible while he still could. One not wanting to see her frail and sick but wanted to think of her as before. Both holding back tears as their hearts were aching thinking of her no longer being with us. The ones that don't live near having to grieve alone or with just their immediate family because of the virus that has taken over the world.

They all know why she's call Grand Ma, because in their eyes she is truly GRAND.

John 14:1-6

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way?

Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.
