Rev. John Pike Officiating

Psalm 51:10

Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me.

King James Version

II Timothy 4:6-8

For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand.

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:

Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

JOHN 14:1-4

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

King James Version

Abbie Lee Scoggins

Abbie Lee Scoggins age 98, of Greensboro, GA, died Thursday, August 20, 2020 at Legacy Health and Rehabilitation in Greensboro. A native and lifelong resident of Greene County she was born in Siloam on July 7, 1922 to the late Obie Columbus Tolbert and Nancy Ada Bryan Tolbert. She attended Greensboro High School and married Early Walter Scoggins. They made their home in Greensboro and while raising her family, she was a weaver for Wellington Puritan Mills. Mrs. Scoggins was the longest living member of Walker United Methodist Church. She joined in 1935 when she was 13. Walking, gardening, sewing and cooking were some of her many interests.

In addition to her husband she was preceded in death by a daughter; Janice Marie Flynn; and siblings, Ruth Virginia Moody, Harold Tolbert and Comer Tolbert. She is survived by a son, Tony Scoggins and his wife Deborah of Appling, GA; six grandchildren, Robert Troutman, Brook Troutman, Holly Troutman, Allison Balzano, Christopher Troutman and Justin Warren Scoggins; a number of other relatives and many good friends.
