Rev. John McMillian Officiating

Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.*

Prayer of Choice

Prayer Of
St. Francis Of Assisi

Lord, make me an instrument of Thy peace; where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; and where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved, as to love: for it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

Patsy Lou Weaver Nash

Patsy Lou Weaver Nash, of Greensboro, GA died Saturday, August 22, 2020 at her residence. She was 77. Born October 6, 1942 in Fayetteville, NC, she was the daughter of the late Bryan Weaver and Mamie Landruth Weaver. She earned an Associate Degree in Business from the University of North Carolina Women's College in 1962. On January 25, 1964, she married Richard Andrus "Andy" Nash and they were married for fifty-six years. She was the Administrative Assistant for the Centers for Disease Control in Atlanta until she retired in the early nineties. They purchased their home in Greensboro in 1980 and moved here permanently from Atlanta, GA fifteen years ago. Patsy was a member of Walker United Methodist Church in Greensboro. Tennis, golf and bridge were some of the things she enjoyed. Family was important and she always enjoyed being with her children and grandchildren.
