The Old Rugged Cross

*On a hill far away stood an old rugged cross,
The emblem of suffering and shame;
And I love that old cross where the dearest and best
For a world of lost sinners was slain.*

*On that old rugged cross so despised by the world,
Has a wondrous attraction for me;
For the dear lamb of God left his glory above,
To bear it to dark Calvary.*

*In the old rugged cross, stained with blood so divine,
A wondrous beauty I see;
For 'twas on that old cross Jesus suffered and died,
To pardon and sanctify me.*

*To the old rugged cross I will ever be true,
Its shame and reproach gladly bear;
Then He'll call me some day to my home far away,
Where His glory forever I'll share.*

*I'll cherish the old rugged cross
Till my trophies at last I lay down;
I will cling to the old rugged cross'
And exchange it some day for a crown.*

Closing Prayer

Rev. Robert Robinson

The family thanks the many friends and relatives who have offered their love and support.

Do not stand at my grave and weep.

I am not there. I do not sleep.

I am a thousand winds that blow.

I am the diamond glints on snow.

I am the sunlight on ripened grain.

I am the gentle Autumn rain.

When you awaken in the morning's hush,

I am the swift uplifting rush.

Quiet bird in circled flight,

I am the soft star that shines at night.

Do not stand at my grave and cry.

I am not there. I did not die.
