Amazing Grace

*Amazing grace! how sweet the sound,
That saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found,
Was blind, but now I see.*

*'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed!*

*Thro' many dangers, toils and snares,
I have already come;
'Tis grace hath bro't me safe thus far,
And grace will lead me home.*

*When we've been there ten thousand years,
Bright shining as the sun,
We've no less days to sing God's praise
Than when we first begun.*

INTERMENT SERVICES AT

The family thanks the many friends and relatives who have offered their love and support.

Victory In Jesus

*I heard an old, old story,
How a Savior came from glory,
How He gave His life on Calvary
To save a wretch like me;
I heard about His groaning,
Of His precious blood's atoning,
Then I repented of my sins
And won the victory.*

*I heard about His healing,
Of His cleansing pow'r revealing.
How He made the lame to walk again
And caused the blind to see;
And then I cried, "Dear Jesus,
Come and heal my broken spirit,"
And somehow Jesus came and bro't
To me the victory.*

*O victory in Jesus,
My Savior, forever.
He sought me and bought me
With His redeeming blood;
He loved me ere I knew Him
And all my love is due Him,
He plunged me to victory,
Beneath the cleansing flood.*

Betty Jean Lankford Campbell

Betty Jean Lankford Campbell, age 76, of Arnoldsville, GA, formerly of Conyers, GA, died Saturday, August 9, 2014 at The Oaks At Athens. She was born on August 10, 1937, in Union Point, GA, one of 10 children born to the late Jessie and Cleo Agnes Turner Lankford. She grew up in Union Point and attended Union Point High School. Her working career began as a waitress, then she worked as a meat wrapper at Kroger. She was also the manager at a guest house in Atlanta for doctors while they were doing their residency at Emory. Before retiring because of health, she was a bookkeeper for Milroy Optical. Betty was a member of Wesleyan Methodist in Union Point and a member of the American Legion. She was an excellent cook, enjoyed playing bingo and especially enjoyed taking care of her family and the elderly.

She is survived by her son Kenneth Futrelle and his wife Debbie of Arnoldsville, GA; 4 sisters, Darlene Carter of Loganville, GA, Jeannette Carter and her husband Roy of Eatonton, GA, Joyce Dale and her husband Delbert of Stone Mountain, GA and Gail Sturdivant and her husband Randy of Bonaire, GA; 4 brothers, Bobby Lankford and his wife Wydell of Stephens, GA, Clarence Lankford and his wife Grace of Flowery Branch, GA, Roger Lankford of Union Point, GA and Charles Lankford and his wife Sandra of Danielsville, GA; 4 grandchildren, Amanda Fleeman (Jason), Melena Fleeman (Alan), Kenny Futrelle, Jr. (Brandy) and Matthew Futrelle; 7 great grandchildren, Caitlin Fleeman, Amber Cook, Hailey Fleeman, Alexis Fleeman, Samuel Fleeman, Nathan Futrelle and Nataleigh Futrelle; and a host of other relatives; and many friends. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by a brother, Walter Langford.

Funeral Services will be held on Tuesday, August 12, 2014 at 12:00 p.m. at Callaway Funeral Home Chapel, 208 N. Rhodes Street, Union Point, GA 30669 with Rev. Randy Lankford officiating.
