Mass of Christian Burial

Christ Our King and Savior Catholic Church
Greensboro, Georgia

Friday, August 22, 2014 – 1:00 p.m.

Father Roberto Herrera Officiating

*One gift, above all others
God gives to us to treasure
One that knows no time, no place
And one that gold cannot measure.*

*The precious, poignant, tender gift
Of Memory---that will keep
Our dear ones ever in our hearts
Although God gives them sleep.*

*It brings back long remembered things
A song, a word, a smile
And our world's a better place--- because
We had them for awhile!!*

Jessie H. Fairweather

When someone you love becomes a memory, the memory becomes a treasure

The family would like to thank each of you for your prayers, moral support and many kindnesses that you have given us during this difficult time of our grieving. We cherish each of you!. Everyone is welcome to come downstairs to the Sacred Heart Social Hall for a reception immediately following the Mass. The family will greet you at the reception.

Legacy of Love

*A wife, a mother, a grandma too,
This is the legacy we have from you.
You taught us love and how to fight,
You gave us strength, you gave us might.
A stronger person would be hard to find,
And in your heart, you were always kind.
You fought for us all in one way or another,
Not just as a wife not just as a mother.
For all of us you gave your best,
Now the time has come for you to rest.
So go in peace, you've earned your sleep,
Your love in our hearts, we'll eternally keep!*

Marie Elizabeth Hane Holzhauser

Marie Elizabeth Hane Holzhauser, of Greensboro, GA, died Sunday, August 17, 2014, at the age of 93 at Savannah Court, Lake Oconee. Marie was born in Philadelphia, PA on July 17, 1921, to Harvey Hane and Catherine Hohn Hane. She grew up in Philadelphia and attended high school there. She married Emil Andrew Holzhauser on September 19, 1942 enjoying 56 years together. He preceded her in death on April 12, 1999. She was a longtime member of St. Marie Goretti Catholic Church in Hatfield, PA where she handled the church bookkeeping as a volunteer. Marie was a faithful member of Christ Our King and Savior Catholic Church in Greensboro after she moved to Lake Oconee in September of 2001. She will be remembered best for her steadfast dedication to family, especially her husband, children and grandchildren who loved her deeply. Family was most important to her and she enjoyed participating in family activities and gatherings. She also enjoyed doing needlework, cooking and playing games. She will be missed.

She is survived by her daughter, Ginny Olson and husband Ralph of Greensboro, GA; grandchildren, Myke Olson, Kelly Olson Johnson and her husband Dr. Lee Johnson and grandson, Carter Johnson. She is also survived by her son Robert Holzhauser of Pembroke, NH; granddaughter Kim Holzhauser Doubleday; great-grandchildren Kayla Osterhout and Dakota Doubleday and granddaughter Kris Holzhauser; and great-grandson Anthony Holzhauser.

A funeral mass will be held at 1:00 p.m. Friday, August 22, 2014, at Christ Our King and Savior Catholic Church, 6341 Lake Oconee Parkway, Greensboro, GA 30642 with Rev. Roberto Herrera officiating. Serving as pallbearers will be Myke Olson, Dr. Lee Johnson, Ronald Foster, David Buchanan and Alec Ward. The family will receive friends at a reception following the service, in the church's Sacred Heart Social Hall. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to her favorite charity: St. Vincent de Paul Society, c/o Christ Our King and Savior Catholic Church, 6341 Lake Oconee Parkway, Greensboro, GA 30642. A service will be held on Monday, August 25, 2014 at 11:00 a.m. at James O. Bradley Funeral Home Chapel, 260 Bellevue Avenue, Langhorne, PA 19047. The family will receive friends at the funeral home from 10:00 a.m. until time for the service. Interment will follow at Our Lady of Grace, 1215 Super Highway, Langhorne, PA 19047.
