Hymn Of Promise

*In the bulb there is a flower; in the seed, an apple tree;
In cocoons, a hidden promise: butterflies will soon be free!
In the cold and snow of winter there's a spring that waits to be,
Unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see.*

*There's a song in every silence, seeking word and melody;
There's a dawn in every darkness, bringing hope to you and me.
From the past will come the future; what it holds, a mystery,
Unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see.*

*In our end is our beginning; in our time, infinity;
In our doubt there is believing; in our life, eternity,
In our death, a resurrection; at the last, a victory,
Unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see.*

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,

hallowed be thy Name,

thy kingdom come,

thy will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,

and the power, and the glory,

for ever and ever. Amen.

Natalie Jay Cooper Wilson

Natalie Jay Cooper Wilson of Greensboro, GA, died at St. Mary's Hospital in Athens, GA on Thursday, October 9, 2014. Natalie was born in Eau Gallie, FL on August 22, 1932 to the late Nathaniel John Cooper and Nettie Mae Moore Cooper. She started work as a Registered Nurse in Macon and finished her nursing career at Georgia Regional Hospital in Decatur. In 1988 she and her husband Gene retired to Lake Oconee in Greensboro, GA. She was a member of Walker United Methodist Church where she enjoyed helping with the Wednesday night suppers and along with her husband was a volunteer for eighteen years for the Greene County Christmas Stocking Fund.

In addition to her husband Gene Wilson who passed away in January of 2009, she was preceded in death by a sister, Betty Poole. Natalie is survived by a son, Walter Wilson and his wife, Carol of Augusta, GA; granddaughters, Elizabeth Wilson of Raleigh, NC and Rebecca Wilson of Augusta, GA; grandson, Benjamin Wilson of Augusta, GA; a sister, Lois Yancey of Macon, GA; other relatives and many friends.

Memorial Services will be held on Saturday, October 18, 2014 at 11:30 a.m. at Walker United Methodist Church with Rev. John W. Pike, Jr. Officiating. Inurnment will follow in the Church Cemetery.
