Celebrant: Father Roberto Herrera

Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.*

FINAL COMMENDATION

RECESSIONAL

The family thanks the many friends and relatives who have offered their love and support.

He Only Takes The Best

God saw you were getting tired,

And a cure was not to be.

So he put his arms around you,

And whispered, "Come to Me."

With tearful eyes we watched you,

And saw you pass away.

Although we loved you dearly,

We could not make you stay.

A golden heart stopped beating,

Hard working hands at rest.

God broke our hearts to prove to us,

He only takes the best.

Valerie Lagacy Moore

Valerie Lagacy Moore, age 83, of Dunwoody, Georgia, died Monday, June 1, 2015 at Northside Hospital in Atlanta, GA. Mrs. Moore was born in Teaneck, NJ on June 3, 1931 the daughter of the late Alpha O'Connor Lagacy and Ethel Roulette Lagacy. She graduated from high school in New Jersey and attended business school. In 1954 she married Walter Edson Moore who preceded her in death in 2005. Before she married she worked a while as a secretary, and then became a homemaker raising her children. She was a member of All Saints Catholic Church in Dunwoody. Mrs. Moore enjoyed caring for her family and spending time with them. She was an excellent cook.

In addition to her husband, Walter Edson Moore, she was preceded in death by a son, Michael Moore in 1999; and a sister, Mary Jane Wry in 2001. She is survived by a son, Christopher Alpha Moore of Greensboro, GA; a daughter, Kerry Smith of Atlanta, GA; three grandchildren, Anthony Schafer, Shelby Smith and Alex Smith; other relatives and friends.
