The Lord's Prayer

*Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.*

Mothers Never Really Pass On...

*Death beckoned her with outstretched hand
And whispered softly of "an unknown land"---
But she was not afraid to go
For though the path she did not know,
She took death's hand without fear,
For He who safely brought her here
Had told her He would lead the way Into eternity's bright day...
And so she did not go alone
Into the "Valley that's unknown"--- She gently took death by the hand
And journeyed to "the promised land"...
And there, with step so light and gay,
She polishes the sun by day
And lights the stars that shine at night
And keeps the moonbeams silvery bright...
For Mothers really never die,
They just keep house up in the sky"...
And in the heavenly home above
They wait to "welcome" those they love.*
