

In Loving Memory

A Celebration of the Life of
Charles Linnie Channell

August 22, 1937 – October 26, 2016

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free;
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard him call;
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
to laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found that place at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss;
Ah yes, these things, I too, will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow;
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much;
good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief;
don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me;
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Charles Linnie Channell

Charles Linnie Channell of Union Point, GA died on Wednesday, October 26, 2016 at Pine Pointe Hospice of Central Georgia in Macon, GA at the age of 79. Born on August 22, 1937 in Greene County he was the son of the late Pascal Channell and Janie Lou Wood Channell. His childhood was spent in Union Point and he graduated from Union Point High School. He proudly served his country in the United States Air Force. Before retirement he was working for the Union Point Post Office as a mail carrier and truck driver. Charles was definitely a country boy who enjoyed fishing, playing poker and all of his animals especially his dogs and his donkey. Being with his family, especially his great grandson, Ashton, was most important. He was a member of the First United Methodist Church of Union Point, GA.

He is survived by a daughter, Jan Oliver (Holt) of Eatonton, GA; sister, Betty Armor (Billy) of Gray, GA; sister-in-law, Patt Channell of Greensboro, GA; two grandchildren, Leslie Ann Knight and Bobby Gene Knight; great grandson, Ashton Jayden Jones; other relatives and many friends. He was preceded in death by his parents; and brother, Jimmy Copelan Channell.

A Celebration of his life will be held at a later date at the family residence. McCommons Funeral Home, 109 W. Broad St., Greensboro, GA, (706) 453-2626, is in charge of arrangements. Visit us online at www.mccommonsfuneralhome.com to sign the guest register.
