How Great Thou Art

*O Lord my God! When I in awesome wonder
Consider all the worlds thy hands have made,
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder,
thy pow'r through-out the universe displayed,*

*When through the woods and forest glades I wander
And hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees;
When I Look down from lofty mountain grandeur
And hear the brook and feel the gentle breeze;*

*And when I think that God, his Son not sparing,
Sent him to die, I scarce can take it in;
That on the cross, my burden gladly bearing,
He bled and died to take away my sin;*

*When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation
And take me home, what joy shall fill my heart!
then I shall bow in humble adoration
And there proclaim, my God, how great thou art!*

*Then sings my soul, my Savior God to thee;
How great thou art, how great thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Savior God to thee;
How great thou art, how great thou art!*

The Old Rugged Cross

*On a hill far away stood an old rugged cross,
The emblem of suffering and shame;
And I love that old cross where the dearest and best
For a world of lost sinners was slain.*

*On that old rugged cross so despised by the world,
Has a wondrous attraction for me;
For the dear lamb of God left his glory above,
To bear it to dark Calvary.*

*In the old rugged cross, stained with blood so divine,
A wondrous beauty I see;
For 'twas on that old cross Jesus suffered and died,
To pardon and sanctify me.*

*To the old rugged cross I will ever be true,
Its shame and reproach gladly bear;
Then He'll call me some day to my home far away,
Where His glory forever I'll share.*

*I'll cherish the old rugged cross
Till my trophies at last I lay down;
I will cling to the old rugged cross'
And exchange it some day for a crown.*
